JOE LEWIS CONFESSES BROTHERS KILLED M'KENNA AND DILLON

VILLA REPORTED TO BE DEAD FROM SEVERAL SOURCES

Carranza's War Department Announces Belief in Story, Which Also Is Transmitted by Gen. Pershing From New Headquarters.

Told to Aviators by Natives South of Chihuahua, Who Said Bandit Leader Had Been Buried.

Band Which Was Supposed to Be Carrying Him, Wounded, Believed to Be Surrounded by Troops.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Unofficial and unconfirmed reports that Villa is dead reached the Carranza embassy today. The reports were represented as having come from Queretaro, Gen. Carranza's provisional capital.

Mexicans who saw Villa on his flight south said the bandit looked thin and emaciated a week ago. Reports, however, are conflicting. One fairly good authority stated that Villa was able to walk the first day after he received his wound, which indicated that no bones were broken.

Aeroplane today covered several hundred square miles of territory scouting over a country heretofore unexplored by planes.

The Mexicans in this section are well disposed toward the Americans and many of them are bitter against Villa.

The American line of communication now is about 400 miles long. It is again reported that Pablo Lopez, who murdered 17 Americans last January at Santa Isabel, is not dead, but is wounded, and that the Villa lieutenant is trying to escape the Americans.

Reports of friendly co-operation of the Carranza troops continue.

ONE REPORT SAYS VILLA DIED FROM BLOOD POISONING

Aviator to Scout Over Region Where Natives Report Bandit Chief Was Buried.

COLUMBUS, N. M., April 11.—Lieuts. H. A. Dargue and E. S. Correll of the Aero Corps, returning here today in a long distance flight from San Antonio, Mexico, 330 miles south of the border, said that reports were current among the natives in the vicinity of Santa Ana, 70 miles southwest of Chihuahua City, that Villa was dead from blood poisoning, caused by his wounds. Other reports were that Villa was in flight, closely followed by American troops, south of Parral and near the Durango border.

Military authorities recognize that reports of the bandit chief's death may be another ruse to throw the Americans off of what had been termed a "hot trail," but nevertheless the fliers said no tendency was manifested to belittle the report.

"There seems to be no doubt that Villa was wounded," said Lieut. Dargue, "conversations with natives and with Mexicans having convinced me that he was shot through both legs, one of them being broken by a bullet, while another shot lodged in his stomach. A man in that condition, without medical attention, could scarcely live long."

The Aero Corps planned to send an aviator today to scout over the region in which the natives have reported Villa was buried, in an attempt to find the grave, the fliers said.

Information brought by Dargue and Correll indicates that American cavalry has entirely surrounded the detachment which is reported to have been carrying Villa on a litter. The advanced cavalry detachments, they said, are about 400 miles south of the border, below Parral, and near the Durango border, while several columns are operating south of Satero, where the detachment today was establishing his new headquarters.

Villa was last reported to Gen. Pershing as having been in the vicinity of Bacabachic, west of Parral. This would place him in the midst of the different detachments of American troops. If he is dead it may be that the end came while the various forces were preparing to close in on him.

Officers say Pershing Can't Go Much Further Without Using Railroads. GEN. PERSHING'S HEADQUARTERS AT FRONT, April 10, 10 p. m., via Mexican Telegraph to Juarez, Mex., April 11.—Renewed reports have been received here by Gen. Pershing that Francisco Villa is dead and buried. These reports are under investigation. Meanwhile the hunt continues on Page 4, Column 4.

WOMEN SHOW LITTLE INTEREST IN ILLINOIS PRIMARY TODAY

Reason Is That There Is Only One Presidential Preference on Either Ticket.

CHICAGO, April 11.—Illinois voters are today participating in the second presidential primary election held in the State. The campaign which closed last night was a heated one, particularly in Chicago. Delegates at large, district delegates, to the national convention and State central committeemen are to be elected.

Women may vote today only on the presidential "preference" ballot and as there is but one candidate on each ticket—President Wilson on the Democratic and Senator Lawrence Y. Sherman on the Republican, women have shown very little interest in the campaign.

COURT DEFINES SELF-DEFENSE

Plea Not Valid, Judge Says, Where There Is Chance to Retreat.

TRENTON, N. J., April 11.—In an opinion filed here by Chief Justice Gummere, sustaining a conviction of murder in the second degree, the Supreme Court says: "A person upon whom an assault is made, so violent in its character as to endanger his life, or threaten him with serious bodily injury, is not justified or excusable in standing his ground and killing his assailant if he can avoid the impending danger by retreating."

PREPAREDNESS TRIP IN A WAGON

Mrs. Jean Irie Hull of Joplin to Travel From Los Angeles to Chicago.

CHICAGO, April 11.—Mrs. Jean Irie Hull of Chicago and Joplin, Mo., a young widow and author, will travel from Los Angeles to Chicago in a wagon, speaking in favor of preparedness. Mrs. Hull will be accompanied by her father, O. J. Fielich of Joplin.

Mrs. Hull expects to leave for Los Angeles in a few days to prepare for the start of her trip. Her first address will be delivered in Los Angeles May 1. It is expected the trip, made entirely by horse and wagon, will take six months.

SESSIONS IN GERMAN OPPOSED

Element in Jersey Town Want Council to Talk English.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., April 11.—Egg Harbor, a wine producing center near here, is engaged in a dispute because the younger faction has demanded that the City Council conduct its meetings in the English language, instead of the German tongue, as has been the custom for a quarter of a century.

The city is largely populated by German-Americans, and the older citizens resent the efforts of the young men to bring about the change. The controversy has taken on a political aspect.

RECORD MISSOURI RIVER RUN

Steamer and Barge Make 240-Mile Trip in 23 Hours.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 11.—The steamer A. M. Scott, towing the barge Epaulon, arrived in Jefferson City at 10 o'clock yesterday morning from Kansas City, making the run of 30 miles in 23 hours. The Epaulon carried flour and steel products.

It is the second time the A. M. Scott has run downstream at night, the trips being made possible by the improvement of the river, increased familiarity of the pilots with the channel and the high stage of the water.

WILSON ONLY MAN FOR NOMINATION, BRYAN DECLARES

Nebraskan Predicts President Will Be Named by Acclamation at Convention.

PRAISES ACHIEVEMENTS

Former Secretary of State Is in Hot Fight for Delegate at Large.

SPECIAL TO THE POST-DISPATCH. LINCOLN, Neb., April 11.—In a signed editorial in his newspaper, the Commoner, William Jennings Bryan says it is certain that President Wilson will be renominated by acclamation and that no other name will be presented to the Democratic National Convention to be held in St. Louis in June.

Bryan is running for delegate-at-large to the national convention from Nebraska on a platform pledging him, and the other candidates on his ticket, to vote for the renomination and re-election of President Wilson.

Speaking of the national issues, Bryan, after declaring in the signed editorial for Wilson, says: "The platform will endorse his administration and the record made by the Democratic Congress. The differences, such as may exist, between the President and Congress, will be compromised and the party will present a united front."

Record of Achievement. "It is a remarkable record of achievement, nothing to compare with it in number and importance of reforms accomplished. Where Republican leaders have been wrong the President and the Democratic Congress have been right. The Republican leaders have opposed all that has been done in favor of lower tariff rates, an income tax, currency reform and anti-trust legislation. "They have insisted on war with Mexico and even want to enter the European war. Where the President has conceded more than he should to the scaredness program, the Republican leaders have demanded even more, so that the President is nearer to the people than the Republican leaders. Let every Democrat get ready for the campaign and go to work."

Bryan is in a hot fight for delegate-at-large to the convention, and his brother, Charles W. Bryan, Mayor of Lincoln, is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor, also on a platform pledging himself to Wilson. The primary election will be held April 13.

Pledged to Prohibition. The two Bryans are running on a ticket pledging themselves to prohibition and to the program of driving the liquor interests out of Nebraska politics. The candidates for delegates-at-large, on the Bryan ticket, are W. H. Thompson, J. Thomas and Louis J. Platt. Bryan's brother is on the dry ticket for Governor, I. J. Dunn for United States Senator, Edgar Howard for Lieutenant-Governor, George W. Berge, for Attorney-General, and Chute for Railroad Commissioner and Grant L. Shumway for Commissioner of Public Lands and Buildings. There is also a Bryan dry ticket for delegates to the national convention in each congressional district.

In his speeches throughout the State Bryan is urging both the Democrats and Republicans to nominate dry candidates for all State and legislative offices to give force and effect to the constitutional prohibition amendment, which, he says, is sure to be adopted in Nebraska at the fall elections.

He is devoting much space in his paper to attacking the preparedness program of President Wilson, the April issue contains very few references to this subject. Whenever mention is made of it, the criticism is less severe than in previous issues of the paper.

Bryan's newspaper and his speeches in the Nebraska campaign give the impression that he will not only support President Wilson strongly in the Democratic national convention at St. Louis, if he should be elected a delegate-at-large, but that he will not make any determined fight to prevent the adoption of a platform in line with President Wilson's views on preparedness.

TROOPS SLOW IN COLUMBUS DEFENSE, SENATOR FALL SAYS

Declares Citizens Fought Villa Raid, 30 Minutes Before Soldiers Appeared; Looting Preceded Alarm.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Senator Fall of New Mexico, who, at the request of Republican Senators, went to the border immediately after Villa's raid on Columbus to investigate general conditions there, declared in a letter received by Senator Gallinger that the border patrol was not being maintained in adequate force, and said an unguarded gap of nine miles had made the Columbus raid possible.

Declaring in detail the Columbus raid from information gathered from Columbus officials, Senator Fall said the bandits had made their way into the heart of the town, looted two stores and set fire to several buildings before an alarm was given.

TWO-HOUR LIMIT PUT ON PARKING OF AUTOS DOWNTOWN

Ordinance Passed by Council 26 to 2 Will Be Signed by the Mayor.

The Board of Aldermen last night passed an ordinance to prohibit the parking of automobiles on downtown streets for longer than two hours at a time. The vote was 26 to 2, and the opinion was expressed by some members that this time should later be reduced to one hour.

Practically the entire district between Market street and Washington avenue, east of Twelfth street, was included in the restriction. The only exceptions, on which unlimited parking will continue to be allowed were: Chestnut street, between Ninth and Twelfth; Pine street, Tenth and Twelfth; Ninth street, between Chestnut and Market; Tenth street, between Pine and Market; and Fourth street, on the east side of the courthouse. Twelfth street was not included in the restriction.

Outside of this area the only streets restricted are Locust street to its terminus at Theresa avenue, and Grand avenue between Lindell boulevard and Morgan street. The ordinance was passed by Director of Streets and Sewers Talbert.

Boston, New York, Chicago and other large cities have parking restrictions, in some cases limiting the time an automobile may remain in the street to 15 minutes. The Mayor has expressed approval of the ordinance, but cannot sign it for 10 days. It will become effective 30 days after being signed.

SAYS HE WAS PRESENT WHEN THE MOTORCYCLE POLICEMAN WAS SLAIN

McKenna Had Taken Joe's Pistol From Him, He Declares, When Ora Fired Fatal Shot.

WERE ARRESTED BECAUSE OF STOLEN WIRE IN AUTO

After Crime Three Hastened to Athlone Avenue Garage, Where Ora and Frank Murdered Dillon—Joe Helped Put Body and Spade in Machine.

Joe (Roy) Lewis, of 4253 Athlone avenue, this afternoon confessed to the police that his brother, Ora Otis (Mutt) Lewis, killed Motorcycle Policeman McKenna in his presence and that his brothers, Ora Otis and Frank, killed Patrolman William A. Dillon, who lost his life in trying to capture McKenna's slayers.

The confession was made to Detective Chief Allender after Lewis, under a heavy guard of detectives, had been taken to Kirkwood to attend the Dillon inquest. When someone in the crowded inquest room remarked: "They've got him out here, but they'll never take him back," Lewis became frightened and told the detectives that if they would take him back to St. Louis he would make a statement to Chief Allender.

Lewis, in his confession, told in detail how Motorcycle Policeman McKenna had pursued him and Ora last Friday morning into the alley in the rear of 4172 Delmar boulevard, where they had rented a garage; how McKenna placed them under arrest and took them nearby to the oil-filling station at 618 North Whittier street, and how Ora had shot McKenna after the policeman had removed a pistol from his (Joe's) pockets in searching him.

He Tells How Dillon Was Trapped.

"After this," the prisoner confessed, "we beat it to our garage at 4253 Athlone avenue."

The prisoner then related how Policeman Dillon had come upon him and Ora as they drove into the alley from Carter street, and stated that Policeman Dillon was beaten to death by his brothers, Ora and Frank. He denied that he took any part in the murder of Dillon.

Dillon, he said, was murdered in the Athlone avenue garage. After the murder, he said, he helped them put Dillon's body in the Hudson automobile. He also aided them in removing incriminating articles from the garage and putting them in the machine. In this connection he mentioned the hatchet and the spade, thus giving the inference that these were used in killing Dillon.

Lewis confessed that he and his brother, Ora, were wire thieves and that they had been out in the county stealing wire the night before McKenna was killed. They were returning to St. Louis with stolen wire in their car, he said, when McKenna began chasing them on a motorcycle.

Lewis was kept behind closed doors at police headquarters while making his confession, which began at 11:50 a. m. From time to time reporters were informed as to the vital points in the confession. He continued making his statement until 1:45 p. m., when Chief Allender went to lunch, saying he would return in half an hour and continue questioning Lewis.

Lewis admitted that he and his brothers were the men who commandeered R. P. Beach's automobile in front of the St. Regis apartments about two months ago and at the point of revolvers compelled Beach and his wife to carry them several blocks in the machine. They had been chased as wire thieves and used the Beach car in which to make their "get-away," he said. At that time they abandoned an automobile containing stolen wire.

Allender also questioned Lewis about the killing of Samuel Brown, a Junes driver, who was murdered on Riverview Drive after responding to a night call and about the killing of Policeman Rogers in Kansas City in 1914.

Lewis also was questioned as to recent saloon holdups in St. Louis. At 2:15 p. m. Chief Allender told reporters that Lewis had not admitted that he accompanied his brothers to St. Louis County in the murder car when they removed and buried Dillon's body.

The first development directly connecting Ora Otis Lewis, one of the three rising Lewis brothers with the murder of Patrolman Dillon, which followed the slaying of Motor Cycle Policeman McKenna, came to light today when the coat found wrapped around Dillon's buried body was identified as his.

This identification was made by Henry Krebs, a tailor of 4272 Morgan street, owner of the house at 4253 Athlone avenue, where the Lewis family lived and in the rear of which Dillon walked into a death trap.

"There can't be any mistake about that coat," said Krebs. "I didn't make it, but I know it was. It is the coat that was worn all winter by Ora Lewis, or 'Mutt' Lewis, as he was usually called. This same coat already had been identified by the police as belonging to the Lewis family."

Another Connecting Link. Krebs' statement that the Lewis coat had been found in the Athlone avenue garage at 4172 Delmar boulevard, the scene of the murder, was another link in the chain of evidence connecting the Lewis brothers with the slaying of the policeman.

Links in the Chain Connecting Lewis With Policemen's Murder

EVEN before Joe Lewis' confession a strong chain of evidence had been gathered to connect the Lewis brothers—Joe, Frank and Ora Otis—with the murders of Policemen McKenna and Dillon. The most important links in this chain follow:

Photographs of the three Lewis brothers identified by Campbell McPherson, a confectioner at 618 North Vandeventer avenue, as the pictures of three of his customers with whom at various times he had ridden in a Ford car which he said the brothers kept in a garage in the rear of 4172 Delmar boulevard. It was in the alley, at the door of this garage, that Policemen McKenna and Dillon were murdered in a muddy Ford car after having murdered him in an off-lying station at the end of the alley and fled from the scene in the Ford.

McPherson said the Lewis brothers had told him that they could be reached at 4233 Athlone avenue. This telephone is installed at the residence at 4233 Athlone avenue. The Lewis brothers lived at this address with their mother, stepfather, two sisters and a niece. Two witnesses told of seeing Policemen McKenna and Dillon at 4233 Athlone avenue while following a muddy Ford car that had been driven into the alley, and the police are convinced that it was in this garage that Policemen McKenna and Dillon were murdered.

McKENNA was shot and mortally wounded near the Delmar avenue garage at 7:40 a. m., Friday. The slayers, in their muddy Ford car, fled east on Delmar and their trail was lost at Vandeventer avenue. At 8:08 a. m., Policemen Dillon, walking the Athlone avenue beat, was notified by telephone, as was every other policeman, to be on the lookout for a muddy Ford car in which McKenna's slayers were fleeing.

A few minutes afterward a muddy Ford car, occupied by two men, turned into the Athlone alley from Carter street. Policemen Dillon followed it. About the same time a Hudson car, the same make as the murder car abandoned at Overland Park, drove into the Athlone alley from Penrose street. Both cars stopped near the Lewis garage. The Lewis family asserted the articles were there when they rented the place. Kribs, the house owner, says they were not. Ora Otis and Frank Lewis have been missing since the day of the murders. Their relatives now under arrest, admitted seeing them that day. Oscar Lee Lewis, brother of the three murder suspects, also is missing, and is being sought by the police.

Articles found on the Athlone avenue premises have been identified as stolen. The Lewis family asserted the articles were there when they rented the place. Kribs, the house owner, says they were not. Ora Otis and Frank Lewis have been missing since the day of the murders. Their relatives now under arrest, admitted seeing them that day. Oscar Lee Lewis, brother of the three murder suspects, also is missing, and is being sought by the police.

When police searched the Athlone avenue garage Friday night they found a police uniform button on the floor. A similar button was found in the abandoned Hudson murder car at Overland Park. Four buttons were armed. When they found he had no weapon, they asked him where Baltimore avenue was. He told them they rode away.

The next day about 10:30 a. m. Schriech saw two men abandoned the same Hudson car at Overland Park. He was positive in saying one was Joe Lewis. Pictures of Frank and Ora Lewis were identified today by persons living in the 6100 block on Wagner avenue, near Hoediamont, as the pictures of two men who lived in a furnished room at 6140 Wagner avenue from a week ago yesterday until 5 o'clock last Sunday morning.

Helped Mend Auto. According to information given by residents of the neighborhood, the men appeared there Monday afternoon. The informant, who asked that his name be not used, said he was trying to fix his automobile when the men stopped to watch him. They proved expert mechanics and fixed it for him, and then the man he identifies from the photograph as Ora Lewis if there was a place in the neighborhood where they could get a room and board. They were directed to 6140, where they rented a room. They remained in this room much of their time. They were seen to leave it at 6 o'clock Friday morning, the morning the policemen were murdered, and did not return until late in the evening. They remained in their room all day Saturday, and did not go out of the house until after dark. In the afternoon a woman to whom they owed a small amount of money knocked on their door. They refused to open it until they learned a woman was at the door. They then talked to her.

According to neighbors, the men were not seen about the neighborhood after 5 o'clock Sunday morning.

Woman Thought They Were Men. Mrs. I. W. Clark of 5818 Bates avenue today said she thought pictures of Frank and Ora Lewis, published in yesterday's papers, bore some resemblance to two young men who went to her boarding house to engage a room yesterday afternoon. She said they told her they were going to work in a clay mine in St. Louis County. She advised them to obtain rooms nearer to the Delmar street car line. Mrs. Clark said one of the men wore a soft hat and the other a reddish brown cap. They had clay on their shoes.

Men answering the same description rented a room from Mrs. Maggie Anderson at 5824 Delmar boulevard an hour after visiting the Clark home. They paid a week's board in advance. Mrs. Anderson said they told her they were from Collinsville, Ill., and seemed to be Italian. They left the house this morning with clay mining tools and two tin buckets of lunch put up by Mrs. Anderson.

Policemen examined the men's effects at the Anderson home today and found tools and accessories which convinced them the men were clay miners and had no connection with the murders. A reddish brown cap like that described by Mrs. Clark was found in their room.

Police Are After Frank and Ora Lewis. With the identity of the murderers a practical certainty, the police now are gathering every possible thread of information which may lead to the capture of Frank and Ora Otis Lewis, brothers of Joe (Roy) Lewis, who is now in custody.

The police are in the Kirkwood district of the remarkable chain of circumstances which attended the trail of the Lewis brothers.

ST. LOUIS GIRLS SEND CANDY TO SOLDIERS IN MEXICO

Package From Workers in Railway Exchange Building Is Received at Columbus, N. M.

COLUMBUS, N. M., April 11.—Publication of reports that American soldiers in the Mexican field have asked for consignments of candy have brought responses from young women in almost every section of the United States. Packages arriving in Columbus are turned over to Capt. C. C. Smith, Adjutant of the base, for shipment to the field.

Home-made candy has been received from young women employed in the Railway Exchange Building at St. Louis and from girls in smaller cities.

A 50-pound parcel from a club of young women in Philadelphia was carried to Col. Dodd's forces by aeroplane. Other packages have been sent forward by motor truck trains.

A candy company, with headquarters in another city, and a branch office in St. Louis, is capitalizing the soldiers' candy desire in a scheme to sell their candy. Ten or 12 pretty young women are employed by the St. Louis office, and according to the manager, so through the office buildings, soliciting money with which to purchase candy for "Our heroes in Mexico." The money is then used to purchase this particular brand of candy which is sent to the army.

An announcement of the attitude of the Washington government is not looked for until Friday's Cabinet meeting. It is fully expected that some definite step will then be taken, although officials decline to discuss its nature. A diplomatic rupture, however, is not believed to be imminent.

BERLIN'S REPLY AS TO SHIP ATTACKS HANDED TO GERARD

Note Received by American Ambassador a Disclaimers of Germany's Responsibility.

BERLIN, via London, April 11.—The German Government's reply to the American inquiries regarding the steamship Sussex and four other vessels, which have been sunk or damaged, was delivered today to the American embassy.

The note declares, as previously called, that the reports of the commanders of submarines which might possibly have been involved in an attack on the Sussex make it absolutely certain that the Sussex was not struck by a German torpedo.

Likewise, Germany denies responsibility for the sinking of the steamers Englishman, Manchester, Engined, Eagle Point and Berdendale, evidence having been adduced at the investigation to show that no blame attached to Germany.

Spain Aroused by Sinking of Passenger Ship. MADRID, April 11.—The owners of the Spanish steamer Santandero have been notified that the ship was sunk by a submarine and that the passengers and crew were given 15 minutes to leave the ship. Four Spanish passengers were drowned.

The torpedoing of the Santandero has produced a painful impression on the Spanish press and public.

The Danish steamer Atlanta has landed at Seco, a small French promontory in the Bay of Biscay, 38 survivors, several of whom are women, from the Santandero of Bilbao, which was torpedoed.

A dispatch from Biarritz yesterday said that a Danish steamship had landed 36 survivors from the Santandero, several of them women.

Cabinet Will Have Berlin Note WASHINGTON, April 11.—Germany's note in response to inquiries of the American Government regarding the attack on the English steamer Sussex and other unarmed merchant ships with Americans aboard was expected to be started on its way to the United States today.

An announcement of the attitude of the Washington government is not looked for until Friday's Cabinet meeting. It is fully expected that some definite step will then be taken, although officials decline to discuss its nature. A diplomatic rupture, however, is not believed to be imminent.

RECEIVERSHIP FOR U. R. IS PROBABLE, FINANCIERS SAY

Mill Tax Ruling Likely to Bring About Some Scheme of Reorganization.

A receivership, followed by a reorganization of the United Railways properties and a squeezing out of the $60,000,000 "water" in the company's capitalization, is believed in financial circles to be a probable result of the final judgment by the city against the company yesterday, in its suits for the mill-per-passenger tax from 1905 to 1910.

The judgment, which was rendered by the United States Supreme Court's decision of the company's appeal yesterday, involves about $3,000,000. The total amount due to the city, under the mill tax ordinance, to Dec. 31 last, exceeds $5,000,000.

Former Judge Henry S. Priest, counsel for the company in the long litigation over the mill tax, was asked by a Post-Dispatch reporter this morning whether a receivership and reorganization were likely to be decided on.

Hopes to Avoid Receivership. "I hope not," he replied. "Such a result would be more calamitous to the city than to the security holders, except share holders, of the United Railways Co. It would be a very costly victory to the city."

When asked what effect a receivership would have on the city's claim for mill tax payments due since 1910, Priest said: "In my opinion, it would defeat the city's right to recover. Such a debt would not be prior to bonds."

As to a suggestion published as coming from an officer of this company that the United Railways Co. might dissolve into its original component street railway companies, and cease the issuance of transfers, Priest said:

"I have not discussed this matter with any director of the company. The present system of transfers is a very heavy burden on the company. Without transfers the company might be able to pay the double tax laid by the mill tax ordinance."

Priest said the company's reserve fund, which has been accumulating since dividends were suspended on the preferred stock in 1910, would not cover much more than the present judgment. This means that the company has not the money to pay the balance due since 1910, about $2,500,000. How it will get this money, Priest would not undertake to say, except to point out that the city's claim to this balance has not been finally adjudicated.

Will Resist Claim for Balance. The company will resist the city's claim for the balance since 1910, and will plead, in its defense, some points which are said not to have been pleaded in the suits now decided. Priest would not outline the nature of these new pleas. City Counselor Daus says he does not believe they will materially alter the case, and he predicts that the city will recover the entire amount due, if the company continues its resistance to the suits now pending.

President McCulloch of the company declined to talk of the company's prospective action in view of the judgment. Several weeks ago, in a published interview, McCulloch talked of the company's finances, showing that it was a $65,000,000 corporation, with property having a cash value of $45,000,000 or more. He said that, if the company should go into a receiver's hands, it would sell for about what its stock and bonds would bring, his highest estimate being $47,000,000.

Comparison of these figures shows a margin of more than $20,000,000 water in the capitalization, and largely explains the company's inability to earn dividends on its capitalization.

McCulloch said, in the recent interview, that the mill tax amounted to about $235,000 a year, and that as the company had been putting all its earnings back into the property, the withdrawal of $235,000 a year would mean that the company would have much less to spend on the property.

A receivership would turn the company's property over to the bondholders, and, it is believed, would practically freeze out the stockholders. United Railways common was quoted on the Stock Exchange yesterday, before the announcement of the decision, at $5.25 a share bid and $5.27 asked, and preferred was quoted at $18 bid and $18.50 asked. Today $4.25 was the highest bid for common, while $18 and $18.50 were paid for blocks of preferred.

Fraser of Mill Tax Helped City for Three Years Without Pay. The mill tax ordinance, written by William F. Woerner in 1913, has been subjected to the most severe judicial scrutiny of any ordinance in the city's history. Woerner was associate city counselor when he prepared the ordinance, and at the expiration of his term in 1908, he devoted, without any compensation from the city, a great deal of time to the case until it was decided by the Supreme Court of the United States for the first time in 1908. Woerner had charge of the case for the city during these three years of hard fighting, and gave his services to the city because he wished to uphold the validity of the ordinance.

Woerner takes the view that the case was really decided by the Supreme Court's first opinion in 1908, and that the litigation during the eight years since that time has been for the purpose of delay, in the hope of obtaining a favorable compromise from the city.

The first decisions in the old United States Circuit Court, written by Judges Adams and Finklenburg, were against the city. They granted injunctions restraining the city from enforcing the ordinance. Woerner went with the case to the Supreme Court, and had to overturn the decisions of the lower Federal court.

Woerner said to a Post-Dispatch reporter today that the value of the decision principally is that it sustains the mill tax, which is a continuing tax of not less than $250,000 a year. This will become greater as the company's gross receipts increase.

Since the decision of the United States Supreme Court in 1908, every decision of the St. Louis Circuit Court, the Missouri Supreme Court and the United States Supreme Court has been against the company.

How We Can Increase Our Weight

THIN people, particularly those who are ten pounds or more under normal weight, and who would like to put on some good healthy stay-the-flesh, will be glad to know that such a result is often made possible by merely enabling the system to extract and assimilate a greater proportion of the flesh and fatmaking elements in our daily meals.

It is said that while thin people eat enough the greater portion of the flesh-making nourishment of their food goes right through their bodies as waste because their assimilative organs are defective and cannot absorb them.

To correct such a defect and to get 100 per cent strength and flesh-making efficiency from your food try taking a little Sargol with meals for a few weeks.

Sargol does not of itself make fat but aims to stop food waste and to make your food make fat by making it easier for your assimilative organs to accept the fat and flesh-making nourishment it contains.

That this principle is correct would seem proved by the many remarkable weight increases being reported by those who tried it. "I have increased 15 lbs. in less than a month," says one man from Colorado. A St. Louis lady writes "Gained 16 pounds and still gaining. And there are many more."

The Sargol tablets are small, easily swallowed, produce no disagreeable effects, contain no habit-forming drugs, are harmless and not at all expensive as compared with results said to be obtained.

SARGOL Sargol, referred to above is well known as a flesh builder to Wolf-Williams Drug Co., Johnson-Enders-Pearley Drug Co., 7 Stores, Westport Drug Co., Judge & Dolph Drug Co., 3 Stores, as well as many other of the leading local druggists who further are seen on the inside of the wrapper. In view of this liberal offer and the harmless nature of the remedy, it would be a waste of time to give this method a trial.—ADV.

FRENCH BELIEVE FOE'S ATTACK ON VERDUN IS SPENT

Assaults on 13-Mile Front Which Began on Sunday Thought to Be Final Effort of the Crown Prince's Armies.

Return to Trench Warfare Expected as Was Case After General Attack Near Ypres in November.

Battle Continues, but Violence is Greatly Diminished—Floods Hold Up British Force Below Kut.

PARIS, April 11.—On the west bank of the Meuse the Germans made an attack last night on Verdun. The attack was made from the Corbeaux Wood. They obtained a footing in a few small elements of trenches, the War Office announced this afternoon, but otherwise were repulsed.

East of the Meuse the Germans attacked trenches south of Douaumont village, but were beaten back with considerable losses. There was violent bombardment of Douaumont and Vaux.

The communication says: "On the left bank of the river Meuse the Germans yesterday delivered an attack against our positions at Le Mort Homme. About 10,000 men were accompanied by the use of flaming liquids. The attack was made from the Corbeaux Wood and was checked by our infantry, excepting on the east, where the enemy secured a footing in a few small elements of trenches."

"On the right bank of the Meuse the Germans endeavored last night to expel us from the trenches taken by us during the past few days south of the village of Douaumont. This endeavor also saw the Germans making use of jets of flaming liquids. It was met with a sanguinary check."

The Crown Prince's supreme effort for the capture of Verdun, as the military observers characterize the struggle on Sunday to the west of the Meuse, is said to be spending itself against the stout defense of the French. The observers point out that when the assailant realizes that he has failed to attain his objective, he invariably delivers an extended assault with great violence, as happened in the normal trench warfare. Such was the great German attack during the battle of Ypres on Nov. 10, five days before the battle ended, and the French battle in the Champagne, on March 18, 1915, also closed with a violent assault. In these operations the assailants hoped to surprise the defender by an unexpected effort. Gen. Petain, the French commander at Verdun, was not caught napping, but foresaw the possibility of such a move and strengthened and strengthened his line in anticipation of it.

The battle continues along a 13-mile front, but with a perceptible diminution of its violence. The French commander's plan is to engage the last possible number of men, so as to retain the maximum number of formations for the later operations which are to be entered upon at a moment which he will consider opportune and which probably will be decided upon by him when he considers that the Germans have wasted all the men they are willing to sacrifice.

33 Divisions Used. Since the beginning of the battle the Germans have employed 32 divisions, it is asserted, and it is impossible for them long to continue their efforts on the present scale. A radical change is looked for shortly.

The statement from the War Office last night said: "West of the Meuse the bombardment continued with increasing intensity during the course of the day. About midday the Germans launched an attack, debouching in the region of Haucourt, Bethincourt on our positions south of the Forges Brook. Notwithstanding the violence of the assaults, which cost the enemy very serious losses, our line was not moved on the whole of our front of Le Mort Homme-Cumieres. Consecutive attempts to attack, preceded by intense artillery preparation, were arrested by our curtain of fire."

"East of the Meuse, Cote du Poivre was very violently bombarded. The enemy at the end of the day attacked several times our positions in the Callette woods, but was everywhere repulsed."

Floods Prevent British Advance Toward Kut. LONDON, April 11.—The Mesopotamia statement given out this evening by the official press bureau says: "No attack on Sannayyat was made on April 6, as reported in the Turkish communication. Sir Percy Lake reports that an attack made at dawn on the ninth failed to get through the enemy's lines. The operations were much hampered by floods, which are extending."

The failure of the British troops to penetrate the Turkish position at Sannayyat was a disappointment to the British public, which had hoped after the recent victory at Umm-El-Henna that success would attend the operations for the relief of Gen. Townshend and his men besieged in Kut-el-Amara.

The relieving force consists of two divisions, one under Lieutenant-General Gorringe, in chief command of the left bank of the Tigris, and the other under Gen. Keary, on the right bank.

The Sannayyat position extends about two miles on either bank of the Tigris, the left flank resting on the Suwayh marsh and the right flank on the marshy ground stretching 12 miles between Orak and Esinn. Apparently the Turkish position at Sannayyat has been strongly reinforced since the Turkish defeat at Ordinary Nuxated Iron Will Make Delineate. Nervous, Run-down People 200 Per Cent Stronger in Two Weeks' Time, in Many Cases.

Most people foolishly seem to think they are going to get renewed health and strength from some stimulating medicine, secret nostrum or magic drug, said Dr. Sauer, a well-known specialist, who has studied widely in both this country and Europe, where, as a matter of fact, real and true strength can only come from the food you eat. But people often fail to get the strength out of their food because they haven't enough iron in their blood to enable it to change food into living matter. From their weakened, nervous condition, they know something is wrong but they can't tell what the trouble is. Commence doctoring for stomach, liver or kidney trouble or symptoms of some other ailment caused by the lack of iron in the blood. This thing may go on for years, while the patient suffers untold agony. If you are not strong or well, you owe it to yourself to make the following test: See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next take two five-grain tablets of ordinary nuxated iron three times per day after meals for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see for yourself how much you have gained. I have seen dozens of nervous, run-down people who were ailing all the while, double their strength and endurance and entirely get rid of all symptoms of dyspepsia, liver and other troubles in from ten to fourteen days' time, simply by taking iron in the proper form. And this after they had in some cases been doctoring for months without obtaining any benefit. But don't take the old form of iron, iron acetate or tincture of iron simply to save a few cents. You must take iron in a form that can be easily absorbed and assimilated like nuxated iron. If you want it to do you any good, otherwise it may prove worse than useless. Many an athlete or prizefighter has won the day simply because he knew the secret of great strength and endurance and filled his blood with iron before he went into the arena, while many another has gone down to inglorious defeat simply for lack of iron.

NOTE. Nuxated iron, recommended above by Dr. Sauer, is not a patent medicine nor secret remedy, but one which is well known to druggists and whose iron constituents is widely prescribed by eminent physicians everywhere. Unlike the old inorganic iron products, it is easily assimilated, does not injure the teeth, make them black, nor upset the stomach; on the contrary, it is a most potent remedy in nearly all forms of indigestion, as well as for nervous, run-down conditions. The manufacturers have such great confidence in Nuxated iron that they offer to forfeit $100.00 to any charitable institution if they cannot take any man or woman under 60 who lacks iron and increase their strength 200 per cent or over in four weeks' time, provided they also offer to refund your money if it does not at least double your strength and endurance in ten days' time. It is dispensed in this city by Judge & Dolph Drug Co., Wolf-Wilson Drug Co., Johnson-Sander-Pauley Drug Co., and all other druggists.—ADV.

JURY COMPLETED; GILMORE - BONFIG ARSON TRIAL ON

Circuit Attorney Makes Opening Statement Against Bersch, Gilmore and Imel.

The jury in the case of Julius R. Bersch, 531 Von Versen avenue, president of the Bersch Insurance Agency; Harold G. Gilmore, 5000 Delmar boulevard, president, and Harry C. Imel, 723 Aubert avenue, secretary of the Gilmore-Bonfig Decorating Co., charged with arson in the second and third degree, in setting fire to the Gilmore-Bonfig plant at 4455 Olive street, July 24, 1915, was completed today. The trial began with Circuit Attorney Harvey making the opening statement.

Bersch and Gilmore are middle-aged married men, but their wives were not present. Imel is a young man. The courtroom was filled, but there were few women in the audience.

The jury is composed of the following: H. M. Herrell, carpenter, 5900 Pennsylvania avenue; William G. Burkhead, assistant manager United Drug Co., 5101 Cates avenue; Lasar Hess, salesman, Rice-Six Dry Goods Co., 614 Berlin avenue; Henry Henneberger, traffic manager National Biscuit Co., 506 Rutter street; Louis A. Horst, cabinet-maker, 2507 Alcott avenue; Ward Lee, salesman, J. T. Milliken & Co., 3625 Blaine avenue; Daniel H. Mack, foreman Missouri Pacific Railroad, 408 Labadie avenue; William P. Meteler, clerk Missouri Pacific Railroad, 3142 Iowa avenue; William H. Meyer, draftsman, 3514 North Jefferson avenue; William W. Bradley, president National Lumber Co., 4236 West Pine boulevard; John H. Brod Jr., president J. H. Brod Granite Co., 1221 Temple place; Rudolph Gaubetz, baker, McKinney Bread Co., 3385 Fair avenue.

The trial was originally set for Dec. 8, but the cases were nolle prossed by Circuit Attorney Harvey at that time because Herbert O. Baker, an associate of the Bersch agency, had lost his memory and could not be relied upon to testify to the things that he had told to the Circuit Attorney and to the grand jury. On March 17 Baker pleaded guilty to third-degree larceny, but sentence was suspended. The cases were reinstated and reset.

It is expected that the case will continue a week or longer. There are 48 witnesses for the State and 11 for the defense. Baker will be the first witness. He is expected to tell about a plot to destroy the plant for the $35,000 insurance which had been placed upon it.

WARRANT ISSUED FOR THE ARREST OF DR. B. CLARK HYDE

Is Based on New Information Filled in Murder Case of Col. Swope.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 11.—A new complaint charging Dr. B. Clark Hyde with the murder of Col. Thomas H. Swope was filed today in the Justice Court of Charles Clark.

A warrant for Dr. Hyde's arrest was issued immediately. Dr. Hyde's attorneys said they would bring Dr. Hyde into court tomorrow so the date could be set for a preliminary hearing.

The result of the new complaint hinges on what action will be taken tomorrow in Judge Porterfield's court, where the old case is still pending. Attorneys for the physician filed a motion to dismiss the case on the ground that it had been continued more than four court terms by the Prosecutor's office.

The new information charges poisoning by strychnine and cyanide of potassium, while the former information mentioned strychnine and "other poisons unknown to the jury."

MAYOR MITCHELL WANTS 'INSULT' TO THE FLAG INVESTIGATED

Man Accused Denies That He Said "Down With the Stars and Stripes."

NEW YORK, April 11.—Mayor Mitchell has requested President William G. Willcox of the Board of Education to investigate an alleged insult to the American flag at a meeting held here Sunday night in the "Washington Irving School."

The speaker to whom the alleged insult was attributed was James H. Maurer, president of the Pennsylvania State Federation of Labor, in opposing the proposed establishment of a State constabulary in New York, he was quoted as having shouted: "Down with the Stars and Stripes!"

READING, Pa., April 11.—James H. Maurer, president of the Pennsylvania State Federation of Labor, and Socialist member of the State Legislature, denies that he shouted "Down with the Stars and Stripes" in his address in New York. He stated he had dwelt upon the State constabulary of Pennsylvania and to exhibit a picture, "Undine," at a burial service in the coal regions.

"What I said was that it was this constabulary that ordered the American flag lowered at the funeral," Maurer declared.

Two Film Company Men and Theater Manager Charged With Conspiracy in Exhibition of 'Undine.'

WARRANTS were issued today by Assistant Prosecuting Attorney J. Joel Wilson against Barney Rosenthal, manager of the Universal Film Co.; Sydney Baker, manager of the Blue Bird Photo Play Co., and J. J. Barrett, manager of the Chippewa Theater, Broadway and Chippewa street, charging them with conspiring to exhibit a picture, "Undine," which, it is alleged, contained improper scenes.

The Assistant Prosecuting Attorney said he had not seen the picture, but that members of the morality squad had reported to him that it "was not a moral picture." He said the picture was shown after Barrett was notified that it was objectionable.

The scenes to which the police objected showed several women bathing without draperies.

U. S. Expected to Insist on Keeping Up Villa Pursuit

for the Villa bandits is proceeding with renewed vigor with the arrival at the front of Gen. Pershing.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., April 11.—The opinion of army officers here that the next few days will bring important developments in the situation created by the expedition against Villa was strengthened today. With sentiment apparently growing stronger among followers of Carranza for the United States Government to withdraw American troops from Mexico and relinquish pursuit of the outlaw to forces of the de facto Government, officers here believe the issue will be forced in the near future.

Unless Mexican railroads are made available for the transportation of supplies to Brigadier General Pershing's command, it is frankly admitted in military circles that chances are against success of the campaign. Although the troops have penetrated 400 miles south of the border, Villa has managed to maintain his lead and the field force cannot continue much farther, unless supply facilities are bettered.

An overnight dispatch from Consul Letcher at Chihuahua brought word to Major-General Funston that the people of Torreon are in a starving condition.

More Troops Are to Be Sent Into Mexico.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Part of the American troops stationed in Texas may be sent into Mexico to strengthen the constantly lengthening lines of communication of the United States expeditionary force in pursuit of Villa. Such a plan was under consideration by the War Department today.

Army officials stated that from now on infantry would be used to reinforce the communication lines, the cavalry being kept at the front for the actual work of running down the outlaws. A part of the Twenty-fourth Infantry, negroes, withdrawn from Del Rio, Tex., already has been ordered into Mexico.

Official estimates of the number of troops in Mexico and on the border available for an emergency were given at the War Department today. Major-General Scott, Chief of Staff, announced that 18,565 troops now constitute the border patrol.

Brigadier-General Pershing has about 12,000 men in Mexico, including those holding his line of communication.

How greatly the mobile army has been drawn upon for the Mexican expedition and border service, was also disclosed by Gen. Scott. He estimated that only 4000 troops remain in the United States, not engaged on the border.

Army Buys More Motor Trucks. Evidence continued to accumulate to discountenance rumors of an impending withdrawal of the American expedition. Soon after it became known that additional troops were to be sent across the border, the War Department announced the purchase of six large tank motor trucks to replace similar machines now rented, to carry gasoline for Brigadier-General Pershing's supply motors and aeroplanes.

Carranza Forces in Position to Take Over Pursuit of Villa, Gen. Gavira Says.

EL PASO, Tex., April 11.—Gen. Gabriel Gavira, Carranza commander at Juarez, last night announced that the forces of the de facto Government were in a position to take immediate control of the Villa situation if the American troops should withdraw.

"We have more men than enough now," said Gen. Gavira. "If we were able to overcome Villa when he had 70,000 men, over 100 cannon and plenty of supplies, we ought to be able to dispose of him now when his numbers have dwindled to a few hundred. But it is a big territory to operate in and a single man has more chance to escape and hide than a large force would have. However, on account of Villa's wounded condition, we think he will be taken soon. If not, it is hardly likely that without proper surgical care he will survive for long."

DYER AND ZACHRITZ DELEGATES TO THE CHICAGO CONVENTION

Twelfth District Republican Elect Dr. C. H. Phillips and Hutchins Inge, Negroes, to Be Alternates.

Congressman L. C. Dyer and William Zachritz were elected delegates to the Republican national convention by the Twelfth Congressional District convention at 1441 Chouteau avenue last night.

Dr. C. H. Phillips and Hutchins Inge, negroes, were elected alternates. Homer G. Phillips, a negro lawyer, who conducted the legal fight against the segregation ordinance, was a candidate for delegate. There were 35 votes in the convention. Dyer received 44, Zachritz 33, and Phillips 25. Dyer is committed to the presidential candidacy of United States Senator John W. Weeks of Massachusetts.

JUDGE ADVOCATE HAS DOUBTS

Questions Validity of Dual Enrollment Proposed in Senate Bill.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—In a special report to Congress the Judge Advocate-General of the Army today expressed "grave doubts" as to the validity of the dual enrollment system proposed in the Senate army bill. The House bill provision, however, for drafting national guardsmen into the regular army in war time the Judge Advocate-General held would obviate some of the legal difficulties which would confront having a force under enlistment to the states and the Federal Government at the same time.

Secretary Baker transmitted the Judge Advocate's views as not being those of the War Department, adding that he had not had opportunity to study the subject himself. The point is a hotly contested one in the army reorganization plans.

Rubber Soles for Jail Prisoners. COLUMBUS, Kan., April 11.—Prisoners in the Cherokee County Jail are wearing shoes with rubber soles, owing to the discovery that some had taken steel springs from their shoe soles and used them as levers in two attempts to cut the bars.

Suffrage Referendum Bill Passed. ALBANY, N. Y., April 11.—The White Seneca last night by a vote of 75 to 15 in order to go before the voters in 1917. In order to go before the voters in 1917 it must pass next year's Legislature.

PREPARED NATIONS ALONE RESPECTED, HENRY WHITE SAYS

Former Ambassador to France
Tells Navy League a Country Must Back Up Its Demands.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The United States will never assume its place in the family of nations until politics ceases to play an important part in the selection of American diplomats and in the army and navy, declared Henry White, former Ambassador to France in an address at today's session of the convention of the Navy League of the United States. He was speaking on "The beneficial influences of politics upon our foreign relations."

"If there is one conviction more deeply rooted in my mind than any other," said White, "it is that the respect in which a nation is held by others is in exact ratio to the fleets and armies which are believed to be looming in the distance, prepared to back up, if necessary, its diplomatic representations. Foreign Powers know that political considerations or the length of purse strings usually outweigh any known fitness in the selection of the chiefs of our foreign embassies and legations; they know that our army and our navy are, for the first of these reasons, not in the highest state of efficiency and that what is known as 'preparedness' has become a domestic political issue."

"The diplomatic service is the outer bulwark of a country's national security and defense. The leading nations of the world have long since arrived at the conclusion that that outer bulwark of theirs is most efficiently maintained by employing as their chief diplomatic representatives, men who have been trained as such from their youth."

This country has enunciated world doctrines of the first class and has only a third class navy to uphold them. J. Bernard Walker of New York said, in closing international conventions which might at any time have to be defended. Another danger threatening the United States, he said, will be the resentment felt by Germany after the war because of the assistance we furnished to her enemies."

Representative Gardner of Massachusetts spoke on "Why Congress is reluctant to develop the navy and declared that 'until 18 months ago, not one man in a hundred realized that our navy had lost its international standard and had drifted down stream from a good second to a bad third.'"

BEER WITHOUT A HEADACHE

LONDON, April 11.—The Liquor Control Board has discovered a new non-alcoholic beer, the sale of which will be pushed as far as possible in the English public houses. "It smells like beer, it looks like beer, it tastes like beer—the only difference is in the headache," says the statement issued by the board.

In a test case a workman drank 20 pint bottles without becoming intoxicated. The new drink will be placed at the disposal of Parliament, in the House of Commons bar.

PICKPOCKETS ROB TWO WOMEN

One Loses $23.75 and the Other $7.50 in Shopping District.

Mrs. William Mayfield of Drumwright, Ok., told the police that she was robbed by a pickpocket of $23.75 while downtown shopping yesterday afternoon. The money was taken from her handbag, she said.

Mrs. Mary Lewallen of Collinsville, Ill., reported that she was robbed of $7.50 while in the neighborhood of Broadway and Washington avenue.

GALLIPOLI LINE HAD "EVERY POSSIBLE MILITARY DEFECT"

Gen. Monro's Report Giving Reasons for Recommending Evacuation Published.

LONDON, April 11.—Additional light is shed on the withdrawal of the allied forces from Gallipoli in a long report from Gen. Sir Charles C. Monro, published in the official Gazette. The report gives the views of Gen. Monro on the Gallipoli position when he arrived there last October to examine the situation. He says:

"Our positions in Gallipoli presented a military situation unique in history. The force held a line possessing every possible military defect. Complete evacuation was the only wise course, as an advance could not be regarded as a reasonable military operation."

"The appalling cost to the nation involved through embarking on an expedition with no base for the rapid transit of stores and personnel made it urgent that we should divert the troops locked up."

"In a November blizzard 200 men died from exposure; more than 10,000 sick were sent to the hospital. The progress of the Helles evacuation was delayed by the weather and the loss of a large horse ship, sunk by a French battleship. On the evening of Jan. 8 the warship Prince George, which had embarked 2000 men, was struck by a torpedo from an enemy submarine which failed to explode."

Gen. Monro pays a tribute to Gen. Birdwood, and all engaged in the evacuation, and also explains how he urged upon the French commander, Gen. Sarraill, to withdraw from Servia.

Postoffice Robber Sentenced.

CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia., April 11.—"William, the Silent" Leonard, confessed robber of the Durant (Ia.) postoffice, who served four terms in the Ohio State Penitentiary, was sentenced yesterday to 18 months in Federal prison.

Two Stamps Sold for $1370.

Better Doctoring—Less Booze

A Boston doctor¹ who stands at the head of his profession says that most of us pay too much for doctoring and get too little. Only the very rich who pay an excessive price and the very poor who pay nothing, get the best. There is also a remedy which is as interesting as it is practicable.

Another eminent doctor² says that a man is technically drunk who has had a single cocktail or a glass of beer. What he means by "technically drunk" is that scientific tests show that he loses in memory and muscular resistance.

Memory³ is as important a part of the equipment of a successful man as health, and memory can be acquired or cultivated according to ex-Senator Burton.

What can be done with an exceptionally good memory is shown by the career of James A. Farrell.⁴

¹ "Better Doctoring for Less Money," by RICHARD C. CAROT, M.D., in April and May. (A thoroughly frank disclosure by one of the leading doctors of the country.)

² "When Is a Man Drunk?" by ROBERT F. BOWEN, M.D., in April and May. (An analysis of the joy produced during information for the moderate drinker.)

³ "The Man with the Miraculous Memory," by JAMES HAY, Jr., in March. (An interview with Senator Burton.)

⁴ "The Woman Is More," by ALBERT W. ARWOOD, in March. (Underlines the new male ideal, and the financial future opening before him.)

There is equally intensely interesting matter in every issue. The May issue will be out April 16th. Don't miss it

STEEL MAGNATE'S DAUGHTER, WED 4 WEEKS, ENDS LIFE

Former Miss Kilgallon, Bride of Joe Howard, Song Writer,
Shoots Self.

OMAHA, Neb., April 11.—Mrs. Joseph E. Howard, daughter of Michael Kilgallon, millionaire steel magnate of Chicago and wife of Joe Howard, actor and writer of popular songs, killed herself by shooting at a local hotel last night. An actress acquaintance who was with her said Mrs. Howard was temporarily demented.

Mrs. Howard was married in Los Angeles four weeks ago. In Omaha yesterday she saw her husband for the second time since the marriage. It is said, Howard had registered under an assumed name and his wife had difficulty in finding him. When they met, Mrs. Howard was described as being nervous. She told him she intended to leave for Chicago in the afternoon.

Mrs. Howard's first husband was Count Jacques von Mouri de Bauffort, whose romance, vicissitudes and divorce occupied many columns in Chicago newspapers. Howard, shortly before his recent marriage, was sued for $50,000 damage on a breach of promise charge at Portland, Ore., by Mrs. Edna Witherspoon. He was formerly the husband of Mabel Barrison, well-known actress.

DAUGHTER TO WHOM $1 WAS LEFT FAILS TO BREAK WILL

Could Not Show Father Worth $150,000 to $200,000 Was Unsound Mind or Unduly Influenced.

The jury in the Herman Thoele will contest, brought by Mrs. Elizabeth Goedecke, was instructed by Judge Anderson, at the close of the plaintiff's case today, to return a verdict sustaining the will.

Mrs. Goedecke was named in the will as "Elizabeth Goedecke, nee Feht," and was given $1 of an estate valued at from $150,000 to $200,000. She contested the will on the claim that she was Thoele's daughter and the allegation that he was not of sound mind when the will was made and that he was unduly influenced.

Judge Anderson held that no evidence had been introduced to show that Thoele was not of sound mind.

PAN-AMERICAN REFORM FAVORED

Delegates to Congress Advocate Trade and Commerce Regulations. BUENOS AIRES, April 11.—The Pan-American Congress, which has been discussing legislation on trade and commerce, has adopted the following conclusions:

First, favoring uniformity of regulations governing commercial travelers; second, favoring the construction of a Pan-American railway connecting all the republics and with other international railways; third, prolongation of the union with telegraph companies of neighboring countries, reduction of tolls and advocating Government ownership of the radiograph stations.

Fund for Fire Hero's Mother. PITTSBURGH, Pa., April 11.—Instead of erecting a monument over the grave of Peter Vallone, who was credited with saving the lives of several girls in a factory fire here last October, the committee in charge of the money collected for that purpose today decided to send $500 of it to his aged mother in Italy and give the remaining $500 to the Italian Red Cross. A modest marker will be placed at Vallone's grave.

Vote Shows President's Gains.
MILWAUKEE, Wis., April 11.—President Wilson polled as presidential candidate at the recent primary election 21,399 votes in Milwaukee County, with several precincts still missing. The President received practically 10,000 more votes in Milwaukee County than was polled for both himself and Speaker

Clark in 1912.

SALAZAR SAID TO BE IN A REVOLT PLOT WITH DIAZ

Plan Is to Overthrow Chihuahua and Begin March South, U. S.
Agents Hear.

EL PASO, Tex., April 11.—The three leaders of the Diaz plot to seize Juarez and overthrow the Garrison there last Sunday were executed by the firing squad in Juarez early today. They were Nicholas Chavarria, Jose Luis Bernal and Francisco Hernandez. The condemned men confessed the plot before they were executed. Other Mexicans were implicated.

EL PASO, Tex., April 11.—A plot of wide dimensions hatched in El Paso and backed by the same people who are financing Felix Diaz is believed by the police to have been unearthed following the arrest last night of 15 Mexicans accused of being implicated in the flight across the border of Gen. Ynez Salazar.
Agents of the Department of Justice and the police in making the arrests, most important of which were Gen. Marcelo Caraveo and Gen. Ignacio Morales Zaragoza, who like Salazar were among the best-known and trusted of the late Victoriano Huerta's lieutenants.

The prisoners were questioned throughout the night by the police and secret service officials. The following story was pieced together from their admissions and it is believed by the authorities to be substantially correct:
The backers of Diaz, it is said, became dissatisfied because his own military reputation was small and he had no man with his movement in whose generalship the Mexican people had confidence. They were also anxious to reinforce the Diaz campaign in Southern Mexico by a similar insurrection in the northern part of the republic. A soldier was wanted of proven ability and Salazar was selected. He was amply supplied with funds and proceeded to organize his followers from El Paso.

Emissaries were sent into Mexico to try out the sentiments of various Garrison garrisons and to stir up the people by spreading the reports that Garrison was in the pay of the United States and that Gen. Pershing's expeditionary force was really the advance guard of an army of occupation. There has been plenty of evidence that such reports have been circulated in Juarez and have caused a considerable impression on the people.
Salazar's plans were not yet ripe when he learned that he was in danger of betrayal. He became alarmed and fled.

CAMPAIGN ON TO MAKE NEXT LEGISLATURE A DRY ONE

W. C. T. U. and Anti-Saloon League Plan for State Prohibition by Statutory Enactment.

A campaign to elect a Legislature in November that will make Missouri a prohibition State by statutory enactment next year is being conducted jointly by the Missouri Anti-Saloon League and the Women's Christian Temperance Union.

These organizations propose, in the event of the election of a legislature, to attach a "peace, health and safety" clause to the prohibition statute, so that the referendum cannot be invoked against it.

According to W. C. Shupp, state superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, one of the legislative enactments, the issue is being put squarely up to the legislative candidates throughout the State.

Dr. Shupp said today that the percentage of Missouri's population in dry territory is 52.4. There are 84 wholly dry counties out of the 114 counties of the State, and 14 others that are virtually dry. That leaves only 16 counties and the city of St.
Louis that are wholly wet.

No effort will be made to elect dry candidates to the Legislature from St. Louis.

SENATE ASKS FOR STANDARD OIL DATA SINCE DISSOLUTION

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Without debate the Senate today adopted a resolution by Senator Kenyon, directing the Attorney-General if not incompatible with public interest, to submit to the Senate all reports of investigations made by the department into the Standard Oil Co. since the Supreme Court decree of dissolution against that company and particularly any investigation into gaso-

Kenyon had read to the Senate, resolutions adopted by the Western Oil Jobbers' Association, at St. Louis, petitioning Congress to supplement the Sherman law to make effective the decree of dissolution against the Standard Oil Co., and declaring it to be the sense of the association that the dissolution decree was a failure.

TEXTILE WORKERS GET INCREASE

BOSTON, April 11.—A 10-per-cent wage increase, effective April 17, was announced today by the American Woolen Co.

It was understood here that a similar advance would be made in other textile industries in New England within a few days.

Concerning the increase, which affects 25,000 employees in New England and New York, the American Woolen
Co. issued the following statement:
"A general increase of wages is announced by the American Woolen Co.
to go into effect in all its plants April 17. Previous increases in the company's mills have been shaped to give the lower paid help the greatest addition to their compensation. It is believed by the management that these previous increases have fairly equalized the compensation of employees. Therefore, the increase that will go into effect April 17, will take the form of a 10 per cent advance."

ville.—The first installment of 15 centimeter howitzers with ammunition, which were ordered in Germany, will arrive in Switzerland during the next few days, according to the Zurich Post, says the Overseas News Agency. "The Creusot (French) works were unable to supply the guns."

THE MOST RELIABLE

CHILDREN WE WORRY ABOUT

Close confinement in school during the past winter, overstudy perhaps, an attack of the grip or tonsillitis, some one of these things is doubtless responsible for the condition of the child who shows a decline in health now.

What are the symptoms? Pallor and languor, a feeble appetite, dark rings under the eyes, bronchial colds. Very often the best efforts of the family physician fail in such cases and the condition of the child causes the most intense anxiety. Cod-liver oil, so often prescribed, generally fails because the weak stomach is unable to digest fats. Try this treatment. Before breakfast each morning give the child the juice of half an orange. After the noon meal give one of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Keep this up for a few days and then give one of the pills after the evening meal also. Weigh the child before beginning this treatment and again after two weeks. An increase in weight of from two to five pounds will show you that you are on the right track at last. Care is necessary in the diet of the patient and it will be well to send to the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., for a diet book and the pamphlet, "Building Up the Blood." Both are free. Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. —ADV.

BARNES DECLARES T. R. HAS NO CHANCE FOR NOMINATION

New York Leader Denies That He Said He Would Not Oppose Colonel.

CALLS STORY A SLANDER

Says Opinion Is Vigorous Against Selecting the Former President as Nominee.

NEW YORK, April 11.—William Barnes, formerly chairman of the Republican State Committee, in a statement issued here, attacks former President Roosevelt and denies a published report that he would not oppose the nomination by the Republican party of Mr. Roosevelt for the presidency.

"This year," Mr. Barnes asserted, "the periodical candidacy of Mr. Roosevelt for President of the United States is based upon Americanism, and such sporadic support as he is receiving comes from his declaration in behalf of proper national defense."

Not Open to Debate.
"Mr. Roosevelt is not responsible for any natural phenomenon nor has he a patent on the obvious. That this country should be properly defended, as it is not defended now, is not open to debate."

"There is a principle of Americanism, however, which is foreign to Mr. Roosevelt's temperament," Barnes' statement reads. "It is respect for the rights of others. No man of real self-respect does other than respect the rights of others. This is Americanism in time of war, or in time of peace; in time of prosperity or in time of want. It was Christ's vision of human development. In this aspiration American institutions were conceived. In Mr. Roosevelt's code there is no place for this great truth."

"It is not remarkable, therefore, that, simultaneously with the arrival yesterday of Roosevelt in Massachusetts, where where a primary is about to be held, a statement should appear that at a recent Harvard dinner, I stated my belief that there was likelihood of Mr. Roosevelt's nomination and that I would not contend against such an outcome."

Calls It Slander.
"This is a characteristic slander upon my knowledge of political conditions as well as upon my character."

"Opinion is vigorous against this nomination and there is no likelihood of its success."
"The story was, for the purpose of its author, well timed in order to attempt to obscure the action of the Republican State Committee of New York last Saturday, which passed unanimously a resolution declaring its opposition to the nomination of Mr. Roosevelt."

Roosevelt Asks to Have Name Left Off Montana Primary Ballot.
MISSOULA, Mont., April 11.—Former United States Senator Joseph M. Dixon announced today the receipt of a telegram from Theodore Roosevelt with specifically requests abandonment of a movement to put stickers bearing his name on the ballot in the Montana presidential primaries to be held April 21.

The telegram was in response to a letter from Dixon asking for an expression of "Roosevelt's" wishes in connection with the recently launched movement to have his supporters write his name on the ballot.

"For the reasons given in my 'Trident' statement," the telegram read, "I must apply to Montana the rule which I have applied in every state contest."

Bird Says Progressives Will Support Wilson if T. R. Doesn't Run.
QUINCY, Mass., April 11.—Charles Sumner Bird, former Progressive candidate for Governor and a candidate for a place on the Massachusetts delegation to the Republican national convention, who favors the nomination of Theodore Roosevelt for President, spoke at a rally here last night.

"Col. Roosevelt," he said, "clearly has indicated his willingness to lead the fight against President Wilson if the people want him. Against any man but Col. Roosevelt, President Wilson will receive Progressive support, and it is fair to admit that he has, in some directions, worked along Progressive lines."

JOPLIN MINE OWNER'S BODY IS HUNTED IN GRAVEL PILE

Huge Mound to Be Moved in Hunt for Fred Frazier, Who Disappeared May 12, 1915.

JOPLIN, Mo., April 11.—Acting under a court order, workmen today are removing a huge gravel pile at the Tiger Mine at Spurgeon, 12 miles south of here, in a search for the body of Fred Frazier, a mine operator, who has been missing since May 12, 1915. Several hundreds of tons of gravel will be removed.

Frazier was part owner of the mine. He was last seen there on the night of May 12. A charge of murder is pending against William Craig, former associate of Frazier and present ground foreman at the mine. Some believe Frazier was killed and his body buried in the tailing pile.

Craig's preliminary hearing was to have been held today, but was continued a week, pending result of the search.

Sale of 45 Kohler & Campbell Pianos which were bought at a very low price

BEGINNING THURSDAY MORNING, we are going to give you another opportunity to buy a piano way below its value! Way below what it is worth! We have made a big purchase—at a very special low price, and, following our usual custom when making purchases of this kind, you shall have the benefit of it.

Beginning Thursday morning, we will put on sale 30 pianos and 15 player-pianos. Three carloads! These instruments while not so high in price, at any time, as many pianos, yet in point of reliability and satisfaction are the equal of any piano on earth. We have sold them for years—they are not strangers to the people of St. Louis—they are not untried in this section—but they are offered to you as coming from the largest piano factories in America and as representing more real value and merit than any other piano made, at their full and regular price. But while these 30 pianos last they will be specially priced at $248 each, the player-pianos at $398 each, your choice of three styles, a price which represents $77 (average) less than regular prices on the piano and $102 on the player-piano.

And this is the reason:
Once every so often, every manufacturer changes his styles. The changes are slight, yet they are changes. When these changes are made, a new catalogue is printed and issued—in which the current styles are left out: only the forthcoming styles are printed. These 45 instruments, or 30 pianos and 15 player-pianos, are current styles—or models listed in the present catalogue—and which will not be listed in their forthcoming catalogue now in print.

We picture three of the styles herewith:
Three carloads were bought at a tremendous reduction and you shall have the benefit—to the very last dollar. No more can be had at these prices after this lot is sold.

You will be given three years' time in which to make your payments

This is a straight out purchase of pianos and player-pianos, and nothing else. And they will be sold accordingly.

There will be no conditions of purchase outside of the big reductions in price and one other big, compelling condition, and that is: YOU MAY TAKE THREE FULL YEARS' TIME TO MAKE YOUR PAYMENTS.

This simply means that you get the benefit of the greatly reduced prices and have three whole years' time in which to pay.

You may make a small cash payment at the beginning—as best suits your convenience. The balance, whatever that is, may then be divided up into weekly, monthly or quarterly payments, extending over a period of three full years, as will best suit you.

These instruments are priced, delivered into your home, at $248 each, with stool and scarf included.

15 player-pianos, also

15 of these 45 instruments are player-pianos.

Their regular price is $500 and they are well worth it.

The special price of these 15 instruments will be $398 each, the purchaser having the same privilege of taking three (3) full years' time in which to make his payments, the same as though he were purchasing the piano.

24 rolls of music (your own selection), stool, scarf and bench included with each player-piano, and you can exchange the rolls for 5c each indefinitely.

This is the largest and handsomest of the three styles pictured herewith; a style selling regularly at $350; ten instruments of which we have purchased and are included in the sale at $248

TREASURER HELD FOR $19,000 EMBEZZLEMENT MAY GO FREE

Wife and Daughter of Accused Former Official of Northwestern University Gravelly Ill.

CHICAGO, April 11.—Franklin K. Jackson, former treasurer of Northwestern University, who, it is alleged, embezzled $19,000 of the university's funds and who surrendered a few days ago, is all probability will not be prosecuted.

At a conference last night among a representative of the State's Attorney's office, Jackson, the university and the surety company, which held the bond, Jackson's attorney asked that the indictment charging embezzlement be dismissed and the representatives of the university and the surety company concurred. The request that Jackson be freed will be submitted to State's Attorney Hoyne today.

It is said the principal reasons for leniency are the illness of Mrs. Jackson and of his daughter, who is to undergo an operation.

HIGHEST COURT HEARS LOUISVILLE SEGREGATION CASE

Attorney for Negroes Argues Ordinance Violates Fourteenth Amendment to Constitution.

RULING FAR-REACHING

It Will Affect Similar Ordinances in St. Louis, Baltimore and Richmond.

By Wire From the Washington Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The race segregation case, brought to the Supreme Court from Kentucky, is being argued this week. This is a writ of error to reverse the decision of the Court of Appeals of Kentucky, holding valid the so-called segregation ordinance of Louisville, which seeks to prevent negroes in the future from moving into white residence neighborhoods and whites from moving into negro residence neighborhoods.

The determination of the validity of the Louisville ordinance will also settle the question of the constitutionality of similar ordinances in operation in Baltimore, Richmond, St. Louis and other cities and towns. In Baltimore and Richmond such legislation has been in full operation since 1911, and in St. Louis an ordinance like the one in Louisville was approved by a popular vote in February.

The counsel for the city of Louisville said: "In discussing the legal questions raised by this appeal, we will consider, first the rules laid down by this court governing the scope of the judicial inquiry in construing the constitutionality of a police regulation; and, secondly, the extent of the police power of the State in the enactment of the segregation laws such as that now under consideration; and under this head we will endeavor to show that there is nothing new in the present ordinance. There is nothing in it which has not been repeatedly and universally recognized as valid by all the courts before which the questions have arisen—by the Supreme Court and by the State courts before, Northern and Southern. We will endeavor to show that this police regulation is not such an interference with either personal or property rights as to justify the courts in declaring it unconstitutional, and that in the very nature of things every police regulation must interfere with such rights to some extent, and the question whether the value of the right sought to be abridged is not more than compensated and counterbalanced by the good accomplished is a matter of which the Legislature is the exclusive judge, where it appears that the law has a legal relation to the end sought to be accomplished."

During the argument in this case the members of the court asked many questions. Justice Pitney asked questions concerning features of the ordinance which prevent a negro living in a house after purchasing it, providing the house is in a "white" block. He wanted to know if, under the law, a negro purchasing such property would be required to allow it to remain untenanted until enough white people moved from the block to give the negroes a majority and thereby make it a negro block.

Attorney Pendleton Beckley claimed that white people are subject to the same provisions. He pointed out that the law does not affect the right of a negro to live in a "white" block if he owned the property prior to the enactment of the law.

Attorney Moorefield Story of Boston, for the plaintiff, argued that the Louisville ordinance is in violation of section 1 of the Fourteenth Amendment of the Federal Constitution, in that it deprives one set of American citizens of rights and privileges given to another. He said it made no difference whether these rights applied to whites or blacks.

"The Constitution gives to every American citizen the same rights," said Story. "It gives to each what it gives to every other one. It forbids that you shall say to one, 'you shall not buy land there because you are not white, or that you shall not buy land there because you are not black.' Race prejudice laughs at back fences."

Justice McReynolds asked Story if under his argument race segregation of all forms were not a disregard of rights. The Boston man held that it was, and then Justice McReynolds asked if the attorney believed it possible to segregate without violating someone's rights. "No," said Story.

VOLUMES THAT HELP SOLVE VARIOUS PROBLEMS OF TODAY

The solution of many of the problems of the twentieth century is made easier by a familiarity with the problems that confronted mankind in earlier times. Some they settled for themselves and some they passed on to us. Larned's History of the World, published by the World Syndicate Co., Inc., which is now being distributed through the Post-Dispatch, unfolds the life of mankind for seventy centuries. It has remarkable brevity, wonderful clearness of narrative and a unique method of treatment. It supplies the knowledge of what man has been in the past, which is essential to an understanding of the world today. The five volumes may be obtained for $1.50 at the office of the Post-Dispatch if a coupon printed in the advertisement on another page is presented with the money.

To End Catarrhal Deafness and Head Noises

If you have Catarrhal Deafness or head noises go to your drugist and get 1 ounce of Farmit (double strength) and add to it 1/4 pint of hot water and 4 ounces of granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should be open, breathing become easy and the mucous stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Any one who has Catarrhal Deafness or head noises should give this prescription a trial.—ADV.

Agencies, that William and Louis Schroeder of Iowa, had been executed or condemned as spies at Claret, Saskatchewan, March 24.

J. Bruce Walker, Canadian Immigration Commissioner, White said, investigated the report and said there could not have been any grounds for it.

FORMER MISS MULHALL DIES ON HER FATHER'S RANCH

Mrs. Agnes Wolf Was Known Here as "Bossie"—Funeral to Be in Oklahoma.

News came from Mulhall, Ok., yesterday of the death of Mrs. Agnes Wolf, known in St. Louis, where she formerly resided, as Bossie Mulhall. She died at the ranch of her father, Col. Zach Mulhall. She was 33 years old. She was born on the ranch and it had been her home the greater part of her life, but she was educated in St. Louis and the family lived here for a time.

She and her sister, Lucille, came into prominence as wild west performers at the World's Fair and afterward appeared on the stage and in wild west performances as "lariat" throwers, at which they were expert. Mrs. Wolf took her nickname from Bossie Brander, a character in Hoyt's "A Texas Steer." She will be buried Wednesday in the family vault on the ranch.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

G.—The $1.00 you sent has been forwarded to Helen Wilson, who found Policeman Dillon's body.

The Degree of Preparedness.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

I am glad to learn from the letter signed by my friend Mr. Tuckerman as chairman that his committee repudiates the statement which I took from the circular he sent me signed by the anti-Preparedness Committee, Washington, and that the committee believes with me in all reasonable measures looking toward the defense of the country against invasion.

The trouble with the local committee is that it is in a false position. The national committee put on the card held by the President for those who oppose his policy and accepted his challenge to come out in the open, against the President's program of national defense. Those who welcome and endorse the national committee must not evade the issue nor try to blow hot and cold in the same breath. I commend to them the fanaticism of a plain declaration and the intolerance of a distinct understanding. We who took their prospectus as its word cannot be blamed for having done so.

The question is, are they in favor of preparedness, and how much are they in favor of? I advise all who are still undecided on the subject to attend the meeting Friday evening and think while they listen. The plain sense of what they hear will make a better noise than I need the for all who want to bind the nation's hands so that the Philistines may do as they choose whenever they will. The part of loyalty in deed, as well as in deed, may look amusing to others, but the role of Deilah does not appear amusing to me.

JOHN W. DAY.

Dogs in Court.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

Strange that it should not be noted that the Vest dog story was the plea of a retained lawyer. Had he been on the other side, we might have got something equal to Socrates McAdams or to Shakespeare's description of Ildo.

ADOLPH W. BARKER.

Justice Defeated.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

The auto bandit crime story now engaging the newspapers arouses but little of my interest. Why get worked up over something which in the end will come to naught, no matter who or how many our efficient police may arrest.

Three or four months ago there was about the same excitement over the so-called "Arson Trust" unearthed here by the same efficient police. What has come of it? Has anybody gone to jail yet? Is anybody going to be punished?

OLD LINE AMERICAN.

The Amherst (O.) Railroad Wreck.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

Will the investigators of the Amherst (O.) wreck on the New York Central Railroad discover that a whistle signal ought to be placed in the book of rules, so the engineer can awake to action the flagman at the rear end of a passenger train, so that a fuse can be directed into service from the head-end, while the train is in motion, and thus keep the following train 10 minutes in the rear? Some wrecks cannot be avoided; this one never should have occurred. A. O. RAIL.

Belgians Express Thanks.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

We take this opportunity to express our heartfelt thanks to your great newspaper for its valuable assistance in giving space in which to advertise the recent sale of goods donated by various merchants of St. Louis for the relief of suffering Belgium.

We assure you that your generosity is fully appreciated and St. Louis Belgians will always stand ready to reciprocate as far as it may be in their power. Gratefully yours,

ALPHONSE DE VOS.

America First.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

I read your editorial on "Military Music," and thought it good. It is time for all good Americans to make a noise and let some of these 1 per cent Americans and 99 per cent some other country know this is America. The letter appearing in last night's Post-Dispatch signed Jay E. Fox made my blood boil when he said the usher and manager of a popular show place complained because a few patriots stood while the "Star Spangled Banner" was being played, saying it would obstruct the view of people sitting behind. Let "America First" be our slogan.

RICHARD WOODS, 4788A Ashland av.

THE MILL TAX VICTORY.

The celerity with which the United States Supreme Court disposed of the final appeal of the United Railways in the mill tax case is special cause for satisfaction. It was a happy conclusion to a prolonged struggle in the courts.

The notable feature of the case was the time required to obtain the sanction of the courts to the enforcement of a simple ordinance imposing a valid tax on a powerful corporation. Thirteen years have passed since the ordinance was adopted. Since then the ordinance has been three times in the Circuit Courts, once in the State Supreme Court and twice in the United States Supreme Court. By skillful playing with law points in the courts the city has been deprived of its lawful tax for 13 years. Thousands of dollars have been spent in litigation; the time of courts and lawyers has been lavishly drawn upon in the cause of delay. The city has been uniformly victorious, but each victory, until this last, which we hope is the final word, was only a prelude to another battle.

The legal fight was used as a lever to drive the city into compromise. The Post-Dispatch regards with gratification its work in defeating the greatest effort to compromise the mill tax by equipping the United Railways with fresh 50-year franchises, without adequate provision for future transportation needs.

The day of compromises, and we hope of delay and litigation, is over. If the heads of the United Railways are wise they will pay over the accumulated tax money and readjust its relations with the city on a basis of obedience to law, co-operation and adequate service for fair compensation. The United Railways is in a bad way. It is over-loaded with securities and its record has earned it public hostility. If it would reorganize now on an investment instead of speculative basis; if it would agree to limit its profits to a fair percentage on a fair valuation and to devote its surplus earnings to a fund for improvements which will assure St. Louis adequate rapid transit for the future, the company would fare better. St. Louis cannot endure a monopoly which is always absorbing and offers no promise of adequate return. The city must prepare for future requirements in rapid transit.

The winning of the suit puts a large sum of money at the disposal of the city. It should be wisely expended. Substantial improvements lag on account of lack of money. The free bridge terminal problem is not yet solved. The loop for trolley lines is not provided for. A mere beginning of rail and river terminals has been planned and authorized. Perhaps the money might be utilized to provide for rapid transit. If the United Railways proves obdurate. Let us get a permanent benefit from the fund.

RESPONSIBILITY.

Mr. John D. Rockefeller Jr. avers his willingness to help build all the churches that his Colorado coal camps want. He will build Catholic churches or Protestant churches or any kind of churches the miners desire. He exhibits a broad mind, and his liberal offer ought to be appreciated. But he expressly stipulates that he will not be responsible for the conduct of them and will take no hand in their control. This is wise and prudent. It also makes it mutual, absolving the churches of any responsibility for Mr. Rockefeller. He would have his hands pretty full if he had to undertake responsibility for the churches, and the proposition works both ways.

Boost the river barge. By-and-by it may boost business.

A GREAT TRAGEDY'S ONE PLEASING NOTE.

Fortuitous circumstances, of course, greatly aided 10-year-old Helen Wilson in giving her the opportunity to perform a distinct public service.

But it is to be noted that this small farmer's girl was struggling along in the faithful performance of a laborious household errand when fortune aided her—that is, when her attention was directed to the evidences that enabled the mystery of Patrolman Dillon's disappearance to be explained. She must have unusual powers of observation to note their significance. And she showed some capacity for putting two and two together when she hurried home after her discovery. At least she made an immediate report of what she had seen and did not delay a day or two, as some small folk might have done, in childish agitation.

Among children who have assisted in throwing light on the murder of two valuable St. Louis policemen, she had the most important part. That what she did will bring help for her straitened parents in a time of stringency is the one pleasing feature of the somber tragedy. She saved the city the cost of a search that might have continued for many days at large expense and, more important, afforded early information of the highest importance at a time when it was needed to give definite direction to the further pursuit.

Individual tokens of appreciation may properly be supplemented by the city with some form of official recognition for this sharp-eyed little country girl's assistance.

WAR INCOME LEVIES.

W. W. Astor, who already was paying $1,400,000 in income tax to the British Government, is called on to pay $230,000 more under the new budget increase. This is interesting to Americans because it is assumed that by far the greater part of the Astor income is still derived from the family's enormously profitable New York investments.

Through Mr. Astor alone this country will be paying $1,630,000 to help England carry on the war, besides great sums through other persons. Senator Kenyon's bill putting a larger surtax on profits sent abroad has much to commend it. If the British Government takes this huge slice from the Astor American income, why should the American Government hesitate to take a much larger proportion than it now takes? To do so would only leave less for the foreign tax collector.

GEN. CARRANZA'S POLLY.

Gen. Carranza has never exhibited much wisdom in dealing with the United States and his lack of it was never more conspicuous than in his half-hearted method of co-operating with the American forces pursuing Villa. Our forces are doing his work; we have assured him that we are in Mexico only to catch Villa, yet he refuses or hesitates to place needed facilities at our disposal. Carranza's attitude and the conduct of his forces give cause for a decided feeling that the Carranza Government is not friendly to our expedition and that danger might arise at any moment.

It seems foolish to agree to permit United States soldiers to pursue Villa, but withhold from them railroad and telegraph facilities and other aid that may be necessary to their success or safety. Carranza is playing with dynamite. A disaster to our forces, chargeable to the de facto Government, would lead to serious consequences.

Withholding facilities might cause trouble, because the first military necessity is to guard the safety of the forces engaged in the Villa expedition and use every available means required for that object and to gain a rapid success. We cannot permit our troops to be starved, shot or hampered, while doing the work of the Carranza Government, through any unfriendly act of that Government.

DINOSAURS AND SUCH.

Our anti-preparedness brethren are pointing to the extinct dinosaur—all armor and no brains—as the horrible example of militarism. He trusted to preparedness and had no intelligent foreign policy, they say; and where is he now?

That brings us to the question of what is an intelligent foreign policy for an unprepared and defenseless nation. If the anti-preparedness statesmen can answer it satisfactorily, some ninety odd millions of Americans will breathe more freely and taxpayers everywhere will flock to the anti-preparedness standard.

We all know what would be an intelligent foreign policy for a defenseless dinosaur which was all brains and no armor—provided it had a good set of legs. It would be the same kind of foreign policy that an intelligent rabbit pursues when threatened. An intelligent rabbit makes its foreign policy just as foreign and far as possible. But a country has to stay where it is put on the map. Is it an intelligent foreign policy for a nation to pretend to be deaf and dumb and blind? The logic of unpreparedness seems to be to throw away your umbrella and stand out in the rain.

THE GARY SCHOOL SYSTEM.

Would the St. Louis public schools be benefited by adopting the Gary system? What is the Gary system, and how does it differ from the system of education now in use in St. Louis schools?

Answers to these questions will be found in a page article in last Sunday's Post-Dispatch Magazine. The article is probably the best brief summing up of the novel features of the Gary system that has so far been published.

Among the advantages of the Gary system are the following: A student is promoted in each study as fast as he shows proficiency. Each teacher is an expert and gives instruction in one study. The same teacher is not expected to teach a dozen different things, in some of which she may be proficient while in others she may be weak. The schools, with playgrounds and auditoriums, are kept busy all the year round, and by a relay system their capacity is doubled. The manual training is made practical, by the employment of expert mechanics to teach the various trades or occupations. The school day is longer, but by special provision for recreation, is no more arduous.

The disadvantages are also set forth in the article, and the reader's attention is called to the fact that more complete information can be obtained from a bulletin issued by the United States Bureau of Education, which has investigated the subject thoroughly.

There is a great deal of agitation in support of the Gary system. New York is trying it, and St. Louis school authorities would do well to study it carefully. The adoption of some of its features might help to solve the school building problem.

MORMON MODESTY.

Listen to that old Mormon, Joe Smith, preaching from the Mormon tabernacle against women's fashions. He says that she dresses the young women (and some old ones) wear these days are "an offense to the modesty of honorable men." They are all, all honorable men, as Marc Antony would say. And nobody in the world is as modest as these old heads of the Mormon herd. Modesty is their specialty and they almost have a monopoly on it. And when it comes to fashions—women's fashions—they are authorities. What they don't know isn't worth knowing. We quote literally from Joe's Sunday sermon:

Many of the fashions worn today had their origin in the houses of infamy of Paris and London and other centers of so-called civilization. And women are falling to the habit of imitating the fashions of the demi-monde.

We will take old Joe's word for it. He certainly wouldn't be so positive without knowing what he is talking about. Joe is not the first prude who has investigated the matter with that report of the origin of fashions. To the philosophic and decent world, however, the fact that clothes are just clothes, and that the fashions are essentially modest and moral, are age-worn truths—and concerning old prudens another eternal verity retains its perennial vigor, evil to him who thinks evil.

JUST A MINUTE

Written for the POST-DISPATCH
by Clark McAdams

EUROPE.

FROM smouldering ruins, from shattered town,
Can I be sadly dreaming?

The groans of tortured souls drift down,
The trees are leafless, scarred and brown.
Heart-sore I listen for the song
Of robin, wren or linnet,
The forest where the birds belong
Holds only death within it.

Heart-sick I wander empty streets
Where children should be playing
Here silence only silence greets
Here echo taunts, my sigh repeats.
Once more I glance about the place
Still somewhat unbelieving
Still hoping for a human face
All gone, all gone, I'm leaving.

All gone, all gone, Oh! hopeless town
Once populous and thriving.
The groans of tortured souls drift down,
The trees are leafless, scarred and brown.
Heart-sick I listen for the sound
Of sweet contagious laughter,
Alas! Alas! the blood-stained ground Casts somber shadows after.

April 10, 1916. HARRY C. JANUARY.

The trouble with the Anti-Preparedness League is that it presupposes a middle ground. That is exactly where President Wilson pulled off his celebrated long-distance leap from the too proud to fight utterance at Philadelphia to his declaration at St. Louis that our navy should not be surpassed by any other in the world. There is no middle ground in that issue, or at least none upon which anyone has been able to find firm footing. As we understand it, the Anti-Preparedness League stands for what ought to be possible. Just a Minute fully shares the League's regret that it isn't, and we are quite willing to join with it in making some sort of slight demonstration. In the words of Mr. Antwine, "Ain't people hell!"

Is there really so much to steal in the county? We read that one of the witnesses in the Ford-Rundson murder case remarked to a neighbor, on seeing one of these cars approaching, that "Here comes the brass thieves!" From this and other things we are left to infer that looting the county for brass, wire, etc., is a more or less recognized industry, though our impression that one would as well tour the county in search of mountain lions as to go out looking for brass, wire, etc., remains unshaken.

RIP HAS DOUBTS.

RIP VAN WINKLE awoke and went through the well-known stage business of pulling himself together.
"Anything happened?" he asked.
"The mill tax suit has just been decided," we replied.

"What do you mean by decided?"
"It has ended—it is over."
He stirred incredulously.
"Who said so?" he asked.
"Everybody says so. The United States Supreme Court would it up yesterday."
"It doesn't seem possible. I always thought of the mill tax case as something that went on forever. It was like a brook. It was like time. It was my notion of eternity. You are sure about it?"
"Quite sure."
Rip Van Winkle has very shrewd eyes. They looked bluer—shrewder—more penetrating than ever.
"Who won?" he asked.
"The city won."
"Ah!" he exclaimed. "I knew it could not be over."

ANSWERS TO QUERIES

BEAUTY CULTURE.

READER—What do you read? Strange you have never seen this flesh reducer: Sleep but little, never eat anything that's fat or sweet. Shun tobacco, alcohol, eat potatoes not at all. Beans, rice, puddings, pie about once a week. Your plate for more. With your meals leave the table neat as possible, especially if the weather's hot. Hungry always leave the table neat as possible as you're able. If you're really faint for food, unt buttered toast is very good, or if that does not suffice, two or three stewed prunes are nice. Milk and cream you must taboo, sugar in your coffee, tea. Try this plan two months or three, and I'll give you the advice I give is true, and you'll lose a pound or two.

CLEANSING.

VERA—Corsets: Slip stays out of their places and remove loose. Spread half at a time on washboard or other clean surface. Take small, stiff brush and scrub until clean, then wash with and hot suds and scrub until clean. Several changes of water will be necessary. Rinse several times, also, using brush and clear hot water. Take up as much water as possible by patting with clean towel, but do not wring. Struck down material and trimming by spreading out in sun on clean cloth, turning frequently until dry. Replace stays, insert new laces.

A meerschaum pipe should at first be smoked very slowly, and it should be allowed to cool before it is filled for a second smoke.

X. Z.—The mortar is made for stone by adding 1 part Portland cement to 3 parts lime. Popular Mechanics says: In mixing mortar a stronger batch will be had by adding some lime to the water used for making the mixture. A mixture consisting of 3 parts fine sand, 1 part coarse sand, 1 part old slaked lime and some water makes good mortar. The very best, however, is made when the lime has been slaked and buried in the ground some weeks, or even months. The mixed mortar can be buried, and it will prove fully as strong as cement. It will prove fully as strong in applying it on the surface. Freshly made mortar is short and hard to apply.

OPTIC.—In its natural state a cat's grey comes out at twilight, hence the widest pupils. Night makes the pupils given rise to the idea that it sees better in the dark. The iris of a cat's eye is capable of great variation. This is a bright summer's day the pupil is a mere vertical slit, but in the dusk it opens wide. This adaptability enables the cat to see much better in the dusk than we do. What makes the cat's eye so different from what we call light simply by the lack of light rays in it. Seeing power of any eye is dependent entirely upon the number of light rays received by it. Scientists have found that the cat's eye, like the human eye, cannot receive impressions not borne upon rays of light. What makes the cat see in the dark are the long hairs on either side of the upper lip, which are extremely sensitive and serve to guide it in the absence of light. No experiments of known value have been made to show that the cat's eye is more sensitive than the human eye. There is a popular impression that cats can see in the dark, but this is due to the degree of illumination, not the cat's eye. We have the authority of the Academy of Natural Sciences that it is not so. The result of scientific inquiry.

Washington on Farming.

GEORGE WASHINGTON, who was first of all a farmer, and never saw a city of over 5000 until he reached manhood, once stated his views on agriculture in the following words, written to Arthur Young, in 1788:

"The more I become acquainted with agricultural affairs, the better I am pleased with them. I can nowhere find so great satisfaction as in those innocent and useful pursuits. In indulging these feelings I am led to reflect how much more delightful an unobscured mind is the task of making improvements on the earth than all the vain glory which can be acquired from ravaging it by the most unscrupulous career of conquests. Can Europe hear these words?

The $500 Check

By Alvinah Jordan Garth.

HIRAM—"Poly-Poly"—Benson, well designated as a nickname, admirably filled the "Information" desk in the offices of Bacon & Co., brokers. He was undersized, rotund, big-eyed, pink as a posy, always neat and clean of person. He exhaled healthfulness. He seemed built for the very chair he occupied and harmonized well with the six pretty—and also pink—stenographers, filling in the office picture just behind him.

Hiram was the office pet, but that had not spoiled him. He had come into the employ of Bacon & Co. under peculiar circumstances, and the co-operation that had enabled the connection was appreciated and cherished by young Hiram. It only for the sake of plain, honest, hard-working John Marvin, his sponsor, he was determined to "make good."

DANDRUFF SOON RUINS THE HAIR

Girls—if you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it. You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.—ADV.

his hands to his pockets. One of the precious packets was missing! He let out a faint yell with the full power of his lungs.

"Lost—ruined! I'll be hanged!" he wailed next, and sank to the curb and a crowd gathered. A policeman came up seeking an explanation. Hiram, in his excitement and desperation, had swollen the loss in securities up to a fabulous amount. A man pushed his way through the crowd. It was John Marvin.

"What was the address in the lost packet, lad?" he inquired.

"Blackstone, Wharton, Winkleman," replied Hiram in a breath.

"There it is," announced Marvin, extending a package. "You must have dropped it on the street a ways back where I picked it up."

Hiram Gets a New Job.

"UNKEYDORY!" shouted Hiram, and he grabbed the package eagerly and his face fairly bloomed again, and he clung to Marvin's sleeve till he was piloted clear of the crowd. "Mister, please give me your card."

"Why, what's that for?" queried Marvin.

"So's I can reward you—not now, when I'm rich. Another thing: I don't want to forget what you've done for me. Tell you, it's a narrow escape! It's me to deliver these securities and back to the bank and resign my position."

"Why do you do that?" asked Marvin, somewhat interested in this oddly original character had run up against.

"I'm through," pronounced Hiram definitely. "No outside work for me. And the responsibility! Nix, no, also never! I'm too heavy for exercise. I'll strike for an inside position."

"Why, come to think of it, our house needs a new hand at the information desk," said Marvin.

"Say, mister, work me in, will you?" pressed Hiram eagerly. "I don't care what the salary is, so long as I don't have to get down before 9, and have an hour noontimes for the eat."

So Marvin gave his card and Hiram was duly installed in his new position.

He made himself useful, he was polite, pleasant, accommodating. It was ideal to him to rest in a cushioned chair all day long. He got fatter and more in love with life each succeeding day.

As to Marvin, the new employee doted on him. He got to walking home with him, after the day's work was done. Marvin even took him with him to visit his fiancée, Mary Roberts, who had heard considerable of Hiram and wanted to see him. Hiram felt grateful and honored.

The $500 Loss.

FOR a week after that he noticed that Mr. Marvin was gloomy and reserved. He talked to him one evening during their homeward walk. The interest and gratitude of the lad made Marvin glad to talk about his troubles, even if it was to a boy, for Hiram had said:

"I'm your friend, Mr. Marvin, and just you believe it. I'll never forget what you've done for me. You're worrying about something, and if it's money—for I hear you're arranging to get married to Miss Roberts—why, I've got over a hundred in the savings, and it's yours for the asking."

"Thank you, Hiram," returned Marvin, considerably moved at the generous offer, "but it wouldn't help me. I had saved up $300 to get married on, and it's gone. I fear, I lent it to a friend—a false friend—who got me to accept a friend of his as indorser, and left the city. Last week the indorser, a man named Drollard, paid the note with a $500 check. Unfortunately, I gave up the note, for when I went to cash the check they stamped it 'not sufficient funds.' I've been to the bank every day for a week, and it has been no use. I have learned that this Drollard, who is a clever schemer, keeps an account at the bank, but never allows it to reach the $500 mark."

"What bank is it drawn on, Mr. Marvin," inquired Hiram.

"The Security National," Hiram let out one of his characteristic yells. "Say, I'm sold there," he added: "You give me that check. I know the ways and all the fellows at the Security, you see. I was a banker once, you know," reminded Hiram importantly, "and I'll collect that check for you if it can be collected by anyone."

Hiram's Plan Works Out.

HIRAM had not been a banker, as he boasted, but he did know banking ways. Forthwith he placed himself in close touch with the "boys he had known at the bank."

"Aw, give me the slip, give me the slip," was his typical appeal in turn to two of his former fellow workers in the bank, and the next day Hiram was placed in possession of some very important and guiding facts concerning the man who had given Mr. Marvin the check that could not be collected. The evasive depositor, Hiram discovered, had made it a point to always keep from fifty to one hundred and fifty dollars on deposit under the face of the check he had given to Marvin. His final "tip" late one afternoon was that Drollard had $25 to his credit when the bank closed, and Hiram proceeded to draw $77 of his savings.

The next morning he appeared at the Security National and deposited that amount to the credit of Drollard, presented the check and received five $10 bills on the check, which Mr. Marvin had indorsed over to him.

"There's your $500, Mr. Marvin," announced Hiram airily, who tried hard to evade the $77 deficit, but had to own the truth. Then one of the $10 bills was forced upon him by the delighted Marvin.

At the wedding Hiram was a happy "poly-poly," indeed a rotund semblance of some beaming, intensely satisfied, grown-up cupid!

QUIT MEAT IF YOUR BACK HURTS, SURELY FLUSH YOUR KIDNEYS WITH SALTS

Eating too much meat forms uric acid, which clogs the kidneys, irritates the bladder and causes Rheumatism.

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and clogged. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, removing all the body's waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells, your stomach sours, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is a life saver for regular meat eaters. It is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia-water drink. —ADV.

Hammer Blows Not Last Efforts of Exhausted Nation, War Minister von Hohenborn Says.

BERLIN, via London, April 11.—The German War Minister, Gen. Adolf Wild von Hohenborn, has made the following statement in the Reichstag:

"I refrain from making any extended statement on the military situation as the daily reports from headquarters enable the nation to follow the satisfactory developments of military affairs on all the fronts. Our army reports are phrased with military brevity, but, in contrast with those of our enemies, they are always true.

"A victorious country has no need to make excuses. That we have been victorious a glance at the map shows. This our enemies also know, though they do not admit it. That we shall be victorious throughout until the glorious end is guaranteed by the heroism of the army, the united will of the people, the moral strength of the nation and an abundance of all things necessary to carry on the war."

Speaking of the Verdun offensive, the War Minister said:

"These are not, as our enemies pretend to believe, the last efforts of an exhausted nation, but the hammer blows of a strong unconquerable people provided with sufficient human reserves and all necessary means for backing up the hammer blows, which will be repeated until our adversaries weary. To attain our aim I have set to work with all my skill. A hundred meters of trenches have more value for me than the finest speeches."

This war will not be terminated by speeches about victory, but by strong blows on the battle fields and strong will at home to hold on to the end. The words "hold on" do not adequately express the necessity for the national will backing up the work of our troops and the entire conduct of the war. Only if those at home hold on can the army do its utmost.

"Never before has warfare been extended so criminally against women and children as is now being done by England. But the resources at our disposal are too vast and our will is too strong for England to be able to make effective her starvation plan."

"The co-operation of Germans at home in this war is a spectacle of gigantic and historic importance and the army expresses its gratitude to the German people for its strong-minded heroism at home. Supported by this spirit, the army will give its all in an effort to secure a peace, the importance of which will be in proportion to our sacrifices and safeguard us in the future against similar assaults. Until then, patience. Decisions are ripening slowly but surely toward an inevitable complete victory."

Capt. Lahm at Aviator School. SAN DIEGO, Cal., April 11.—Capt. Frank Lahm, pioneer army aviator and winner of the James Gordon Bennett Aeronautical trophy for balloons in the international competition in Paris in 1906, has reported to Col. William Glassford, commandant of the signal corps aviator school here. During the last year he has been stationed with the Sixth Cavalry at the Mexican border.

Price now $1050; Beginning Midnight April 15th, $1070; Touring Car $1090

The Newest 3400 r. p. m. Chalmers—A Magnificent Roadster at $1050

There are motorists whom only a Roadster can satisfy.

The touring car is not for them.

Now here's the 3400 r. p. m. Chalmers Roadster—$1050 worth of mighty acceleration, prowess of performance, and subtle riding comfort.

It will appeal mightily to the motor hermit who prizes that solitude at the wheel which restores and rejuvenates the soul—to the woman driver who objects to a bigger-bodied car—to the man whose wife is his one best pal and prefers not to have an everlasting chatter of guests in the rear seat.

To me, there's a singular fitness of things about this new 3400 r. p. m. Chalmers Roadster.

The smart dash and sparkle with which it glides ably in and out of traffic sets me a-tingle.

There are roadsters of twice and thrice its cost—but none will give you a more eloquent expression of that trilogy of motor car desire—comfort, performance, and operating economy.

The typhoon of might from its 3400 engine revolutions per minute is held in sensible restraint so that a woman may drive without fear of treachery from a throttle imbued with superfluous and useless speed.

You get 60 miles an hour if you wish it—but always you have the instantaneous response of its glitter of acceleration.

The pick-up of the 3400 r. p. m. always puts me in mind of a diamond, with an incomparable flash in every facet of speed.

3400 r. p. m. means dissolution of the last throb—and absorption from all rough engine moods.

No engine was ever built with a sunnier, sweeter disposition.

3400 means strainless, troubleless flight at whatever notch you set your throttle, and 18 miles of going in every gallon of fuel.

The Roadster's here now, all ready to pick you up and give you a taste of real pick-up.

TODAY'S AID TO BEAUTY
An especially fine shampoo for this weather, one that dissolves and entirely removes all dandruff, excess oil and dirt, can easily be made at trifling expense by simply dissolving a teaspoonful of canthrox in a cup of hot water. Pour slowly on scalp and massage briskly. This creates a soothing, cooling lather. Rinsing leaves the scalp spotlessly clean, soft and pliant, while the hair takes on the glossy richness of natural color, also a fluffiness which makes it seem much heavier than it is. After a canthrox shampoo arranging the hair is a pleasure.—ADV.

LIVEN THE SCALP
Plain Yellow Minylol is a most marvelous tonic and scalp cleanser and contains no oils, alcohol or cheap perfumes such as are found in many so-called hair tonics now in the market which dry the hair and cause it to turn gray and fall out. A few applications will remove every trace of dandruff and stop falling hair. It strengthens the hair cells and promotes growth of the hair.—ADV.

MOULAN'S PLAYING OF KO-KO, FIRST DIVISION COMEDY

New Grand Central. "Dollars and the Woman."

Everything was bright and sparkling, in the Park Theater production of "The Mikado" last night, except the kimonos worn by the chorus men and the ushers.
Shakespeare has been changed and Wagner has been doctored, but no one has laid irreverent hands on Gilbert and Sullivan. Except for a few topical lines in Ko-ko's songs, "The Mikado" is as it was 30 years ago, and it has kept its freshness while the up-to-date stuff of later years, such as "The Sultan of Sulu," has gone stale.

Frank Moulán's playing of the role of Ko-ko is first division comic opera work. It proves that the art of amusing can be kept absolutely free from literary and that Charlie Chaplin need not be the model for stage comedians' imitation. Whether Moulán was singing about the absolute irrelevance of the vernal flowers, or was swinging his terrible snicker-snee, there was enjoyment in every line of his work for those who knew the lines by heart as well as for those to whom they were new.

While others of the cast did not show
the finish which marked Moulán's work, their performances were acceptable.
Francis Boyle was a ponderous Poo-bah and Sarah Edwards, as Katisha, made the most of her made-to-order deficiencies in dentistry. George Natanson, as the Mikado, did not give his songs the clearness which made the singing of Moulán and Boyle enjoyable.
Billy Kent, in a straight pantomime part, was an engaging clown. Mabel Wilber, now in her last week at the Park, sang prettily in her scenes with Arthur Burckly, and Louise Allen did what she could in a rather small part.
The Lenox Hall girls, who sat in the balcony, were giving some sort of a benefit, and they lived up to the intermission with songs, which were so pleasing that the audience was tolerant toward the mandolin playing, by the girls' big brothers, which followed. The audience was of the ample sort usually described by the word "capacity."

Evelyn Nesbit Dances Adventurously at the Columbia.

Evelyn Nesbit, aided and abetted by Jack Clifford, is the top-liner on this week's Columbia Theater bill. Those who go to see Evelyn are not doomed to disappointment, which is more than can be said of those who go to hear her sing. She has not yet crowded any grand opera star out of the ladder. She wears several stunning costumes and dances with an abandon and jocklessness of life and limb which develops into a real thriller at the climax of the act, when Clifford's high collar seems to be her only visible means of support.
Winona Mack and Nella Walker present an amusing sketch called "A Pair of Tickets." Other features are the Harmony Trio and Stuart Barnes, monologist.

GLASS TABLEWARE ADVANCED

Pittsburg Makers Put Some Kinds Up
10 to 15 Per Cent.

PITTSBURG, Pa., April 11.—The principal glass tableware manufacturers have announced new prices, some factories advancing certain lines 10 and 15 per cent. It was also announced that no business would be taken for delivery after June 30 at these prices.
The almost prohibitive cost of potash and the steady advance of all other materials entering into the manufacture of glassware was given as the cause of the increase.

If Too Fat Get More Fresh Air

BE MODERATE IN YOUR DIET
AND REDUCE YOUR WEIGHT.
TAKE OIL OF KOREIN.

Lack of fresh air, it is said, weakens the oxygen-carrying power of the blood, the liver becomes sluggish, fat accumulates and the action of many of the vital organs is hindered thereby. The heart action becomes weak, work is an effort and the beauty of the figure is destroyed.
Fat put on by indoor life is unhealthy, and if nature is not assisted in throwing it off, a serious case of obesity may result.

When you feel that you are getting too stout, take the matter in hand at once.
Don't wait until your figure has become a joke and your health ruined through carrying around a burden of unsightly and unhealthy fat.

Spend as much time as you possibly can in the open air, breathe deeply, and get from Wolf-Wilson Drug Co. or any druggist a box of oil of korein capsules; take one after each meal and one before retiring at night.
Weigh yourself every few days and keep up the treatment until you are down to normal. Oil of korein is absolutely harmless and does not touch the digestion, and even a few days' treatment has been known to show a noticeable reduction in weight.—ADV.

whose deeds make history, whose words ring

ASQUITH REPLY TO CHANCELLOR GIVES ONLY PEACE BASIS

English Premier Says Belgium Must Be Restored, Weaker Nations Left Free.

LONDON, April 11.—On the occasion of a Government reception to visiting French Senators and Deputies at Lancaster House last night, Premier Asquith replied to the speech recently delivered in the Reichstag by Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg, Earl Kitchener, the Marquis of Lansdowne, Sir Edward Grey, J. Austen Chamberlain, Sir Walter Runciman, Lewis Harcourt, Viscount Bryce, A. J. Balfour and Lord Robert Cecil were present. The Premier, in proposing the toast, "Our Guests," referred to Von Bethmann-Hollweg's claim to readiness on the part of Germany to negotiate peace, and said:

"The German Chancellor wants us to assume the attitude of a defeated to a victorious adversary. But we are not defeated; we are not going to be defeated."

Reiterating that the entente allies were prepared only for peace on the terms of his declaration of November, 1914, Premier Asquith proceeded:

"The Chancellor first disposes my language, then proceeds to distort its obvious meaning and intention. Great Britain and France entered the war not to strangle Germany or wipe her off the map of Europe, not to destroy her national life, certainly not to interfere with, to use the Chancellor's language, the free exercise of her peaceful endeavors."

Says Military Caste Must Go. "As a result of the war, we intend to establish the principle that international problems must be handled by free negotiations on equal terms between free peoples, and that this settlement shall no longer be hampered or swayed by the overmastering dictation of a Government controlled by a military caste. That is what I mean by the destruction of the military domination of Prussia—nothing more, but nothing less."

Referring to the fate of Serbia and Montenegro, following a similar fate suffered by Belgium, the Premier said:

"We are in this struggle, the champions, not only of treaty rights, but of the independent status and free development of the weaker country. In the circumstances, cynicism could hardly go further than in the Chancellor's claim that it is for Germany of all the Powers—to insist, when peace comes, upon giving various races a chance of free evolution along the lines of their mother tongue and national individuality. Apparently this principle is to be applied, I suppose, on approved Prussian lines, both to Poland and Belgium."

Contending that the Poles have had an illuminating experience of the German ideas of a free evolution of this kind, the Premier continued:

"The attempt to Germanize Poland has been for the last 20 years at once the strenuous purpose and colossal failure of Prussian democratic policy. Nobody knows this better than the Chancellor, for he has been one of its principal instruments."

"The wholesale strikes of Polish children against the attempts to force the employment of the German language; the barbarous floggings inflicted upon them, the arrest and imprisonment of their mothers," continued the Premier, "form a black chapter, even in the annals of Prussian culture. It is with this record that the Chancellor sheds tears over the fate of what he calls the long-suppressed Flemish race. I wonder what the Flemish race itself thinks of the prospect the Chancellor opens out to it."

"The Chancellor says that after the war there must be a new Belgium, which must not be a Franco-English vassal, but between whose people and the Germans, who burned their churches, pillaged their towns, trampled their liberties, there is to be in the future, 'the collaboration of neighbors.'"

"My answer is a very simple one. The allies desire and are determined to see once again the old Belgium. She must not be allowed to suffer permanently from the wanton, wicked invasion of her freedom, and that which has been broken down must be repaired and restored."

Condemns Submarine War. Declaring that he would not waste words upon the Imperial Chancellor's "lame and half-hearted attempt to justify the wholesale use of the submarine for the destruction of lives and property," the Premier said:

"The allies are prepared to justify the legality of all the measures they have taken, as covered by the principles and spirit of international law applied to the developments of modern war. These have been carried out with the strictest regard to humanity, and we are not aware of a single instance of a neutral life having been lost by reason of the allies' blockade."

Remarking that the German blockade of Great Britain had developed long before the British order in council of March, 1915, as shown by the sinking of the Dutch steamer Maria and the American sailing vessel W. E. Frye and Germany's declaration of a submarine blockade of the United Kingdom on Feb. 4, 1915, Asquith declared:

"It was not until March 11 that we announced those measures against German trade which the Chancellor now suggests were the cause of the German submarine policy. I need not dwell upon the flagrant violation which has attended its execution, of the elementary rules and practices of international law and of the common dictates and obligations of humanity. Up to this moment it is being ruthlessly carried out, as well against neutrals as belligerents."

King Receives French Delegation. The party of French Senators and Deputies were received at Buckingham Palace yesterday. King George, in a speech of welcome, said the visit was a natural expression of the friendship binding the two nations, and that it gave concrete and practical form to the unity of their aims.

"When you meet the inhabitants of our cities," said the King, "you will learn how deep is the sympathy they feel for the sufferings inflicted by the ferocious invader upon the innocent population of your Northern districts; how warm is our admiration for the splendid valor and constancy of the whole French people. Never has that undaunted spirit of unquenchable hopefulness, of which French history furnishes so many glorious examples shown with more brilliant luster."

MAN AND TWO WOMEN HELD, THEFT OF GOODS SUSPECTED

Two Pairs of Shoes, Nine Boxes of Silk Hose and Coat With "Shop-lifter Pockets" Found in Hotel Room.

Two women, who said they were Helen Rollins, a demonstrator, 21 years old, and Helen Lavine, 28, an actress, and Harry Morris, 26 years old, were arrested at the Astor Hotel, Thirteenth and Olive streets, yesterday afternoon.

In the rooms occupied by the women the police found two pairs of shoes, valued at $15, which were identified by the Swope Shoe Co. as having come from its stock. The women said that they paid for the shoes.

A man's overcoat, with "shoplifter pockets" sewed to the lining, was found in Miss Lavine's room. In the bathroom adjoining the room occupied by Miss Rollins was found a grip containing nine boxes of silk hose. A photograph of Miss Lavine was in the grip.

DRINK HOT WATER IF YOU DESIRE A ROSY COMPLEXION

Says we can't help but look better and feel better after an inside bath.

To look one's best and feel one's best is to enjoy an inside bath each morning to flush from the system the previous day's waste, sour fermentations and poisonous toxins before it is absorbed into the blood. Just as coal, when it burns, leaves behind a certain amount of combustible material in the form of ashes, so the food and drink taken each day leave in the alimentary organs a certain amount of indigestible material, which if not eliminated, form toxins and poisons which are then sucked into the blood through the very ducts which are intended to suck in only nourishment to sustain the body.

If you want to see the glow of healthy bloom in your cheeks, to see your skin get clearer and clearer, you are told to drink every morning upon arising, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, which is a harmless means of washing the waste material and toxins from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary tract, before putting more food into the stomach. Men and women with sallow skins, liver spots, pimples or pallid complexion, also those who wake up with a coated tongue, bad taste, nasty breath, others who are bothered with headaches, bilious spells, acid stomach or constipation should begin this phosphated hot water drinking and are assured of very pronounced results in one or two weeks.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate costs very little at the drug store, but is sufficient to demonstrate that just as soap and hot water cleanses, purifies and freshens the skin on the outside, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the inside organs. We must always consider that internal sanitation is vastly more important than outside cleanliness, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do. ADV.

Intellectual Transaction

THE smart Alec went into the fruit store. He handed the clerk a bit of paper on which was inscribed:

A $?

The clerk wasn't getting his little $6 a week just for counting out grapefruit and things and looking pleasant, and he promptly wrote beneath it:

MUSK.

"You're a wise guy!" said the Smart Alec, and he put down the price, a cent, took the goods, a fig, and departed.

A spectator of the transaction, being a hunkhead, said he might as well be a goat, too.

"What's the answer?" said he.

"The Smart Alec shoves me the paper with the 'A $' on it," replied the clerk.

"Easy mark. A figure eight: 'A fig. Your rate.' Wanted a fig, and how much would it be? I shoves the paper back to him with 'Musk' written on it. Musk, a scent. That's how much would it be."

Might Let Him Drown.

OUR romance began in a most romantic way. My wife saved me from drowning. She's a magnificent swimmer, you know.

"I notice you don't go out very far now."

"No. I don't know if she would save me again."

The Procession.

DO you keep many servants, Hawkins?

"Well, last year we had 18."

"Eighteen?" echoed Wigglesworth.

"How can you manage that number on your income?"

"Oh, 17 of 'em were cooks who stayed

A YOUNG wife remonstrated with her husband, a dissipated spendthrift, on his conduct. "Love," said he, "I am like the prodigal son; I shall reform by and by."

"I will be like the prodigal son, too," she replied, "for I shall arise and go to my father."

They're Wise.

THE true secret of success," said the captain of finance, "is work."

"I know that," replied the young man who was just making his start in life, "but it isn't so easy to work people now as it was when you laid the foundation of your fortune."

Penalties of Greatness

THIS story—which is perhaps true, and perhaps not—is being told in many Italian messrooms. On one of his royal tours King Victor Emmanuel spent the night in a small country town, where the people showed themselves unusually eager in caring for his comfort. So when he had retired, he was surprised to be awakened by a servant who wanted to put clean sheets on his bed. However, he waited good-naturedly while it was done, and wished the servant good night. He had dozed off to sleep, when he was roused for the second time by a rap on the door; and the servant reappeared, asking to change the sheets again.

Naturally, the King asked why the change was made so often. The servant answered reverently, "For oneself, one changes the sheets every week; for an honored friend every day, but for a King every hour."—The Youth's Companion.

Mose's Remuneration.

AFTER old Mose had been given a job the foreman saw him comfortably seated on the sand he was to shovel, directing another dunsy laborer. "Why, Mose," he exclaimed, "I did not hire that man. What's he doing here?" "I got him er-doing my wuk, sah," replied Mose. "Who pays him?" "I does, sah; I pays him a dollah a day, sah." "Why, that's all you receive. How do you profit by the transaction?" asked the amazed foreman. "Well," replied Mose, "I gets to boss de job, don't I?"

Artistic Boy.

HERE, Tommy," said the busy merchant, handing his office boy some silver, "run out and get me 50 postcards. Be quick about it."

The boy went but did not return.

Time passed; 4 o'clock came, but the boy did not return.

"Goodness, Tommy, you've been a long time getting those cards!" exclaimed the merchant—only he didn't say "goodness."

"Well, sir," explained the lad, "I had to pick 'em out. You wanted pretty ones, didn't you?"

The Judge Can't Be Blamed.

JUDGE: Prisoner at the bar, have you anything to say for yourself?

Prisoner: Yes, your honor, I admit I'm a vagabond and a thief, but you ought to be very thankful I'm here and let me off lightly.

Judge: How do you make that out?

Prisoner: Well, suppose we went on a strike and all turned honest, what would your honor do for a living?

Judge (severely): Um—five years' imprisonment.

Another Matter.

MRS. BABCOCK had just been telling his wife of an old friend.

"And he said he knew me when I was a little girl?" interrogated the wife.

"No," said Babcock, "he didn't say anything of the sort."

"But you just said he did," said Mrs. Babcock.

"No," said the man, "I didn't."

"Why, Charles?" exclaimed the wife.

"What did he say, then?"

"I said," replied the brute, "that he said he knew you when he was a little boy."

Most Considerate.

Tailor: How many pockets in your trousers?

Customer: Only one, please. My wife is a busy woman and I want to save her time when she goes through them.

Simply Crazy.

MRS. KAWLER: Did you ever go to one of those astrologers?

Mrs. Blunderby: No, but my daughter Kate is just crazy to have her periscope read.—Boston Transcript.

Another Try at It.

"Yes, I'm trying over again to give up the things I swore off on New Year's day."

Sure Enough.

MRS. BACON: I understand that Mr. Styles took his baby to the opera.

Mr. Bacon: What for, I wonder? The little thing can't talk yet.

No Recognition.

MAN From Collection Agency: Do you recognize this note?

Impecunious One: I can't say that I've ever met it.

Some Job.

"I've got a new job. I'm a barber at a soda fountain."

"A barber at a soda fountain?"

"Yes; I shave the ice."
